

BOSTON STAMP BOOK.

Is published on the 20th of each month, No. 10 being issued on February 20th. It has never asked for an expression of opinion regarding its merits or defects, but among the first 574 subscribers, not one offered a criticism, and 418 out of the 574 have written us in the highest praise of the magazine. This became so monotonous that we that we gave up keeping a record. Our largest advertisers have not missed a number since the first, and report more sales of good stamps than through any other medium.

If you are a first-class collector, don't you need a first-class magazine? 50c a year. Sample free.

The 56th Edition of our Postage Stamp Catalogue is now ready for distribution
PRICE 58 CENTS, POST FREE.

The catalogue is brought fully up to date, and the prices will be found to reflect accurately the present condition of the stamp market. We have added exhaustive tables of the German and French equivalents for technical terms used in philately, as well as a list of the actual values of all foreign coins in American gold.

Our second auction sale will be held late in February and will contain a magnificent collection of entire U. S. envelopes, as well as some other material which will be interesting to all classes of collectors. Catalogues will be mailed long in advance of the sale. Collectors who have not been in the habit of receiving these catalogues from us by sending their names can be entered on the list.

George Hughes,

1 ELM PLACE,
TORONTO, ONT., CANADA.

MANY BARGAINS in the most desirable classes of foreign stamps will be found on my approval sheets. Have recently broken up a collection of 8,000 varieties. No Gumpaps, Chromos, Seebecks, &c. Stamps that steadily increase in value—Stamps that dealers are often out of—these are the sort I have for sale. As far as possible the stamps are arranged by countries. Discounts 10 to 50% below Scott & Stanley Gibbons. Send references, and state what countries you want.

Am always glad to receive sheets of Greece, Turkey, Servia, Roumania, West Indies, British North America and United States on approval, at reasonable discounts. Prompt returns.
