We beg to call the attention of our readers to the advertising columns of this Magazine, and to assure them that we shall not accept an advertisement from any firm or person who does not enjoy a high reputation for fair dealing. We thank those whose advertisements appear in this number, without which we could not offer a dollar magazine—the Canadian Church Magazine and Mission News—with eight additional columns of interesting matter respecting church work in Ottawa and vicinity, for the small sum of fifty cents per annum. It is not much to ask in return that each subscriber will do all in his or her power to increase its circulation. We hope also that they will patronize our advertisers and thus repay them for their liberal support. We are much encouraged by the number of subscriptions received from the members of the nine Anglican churches in this city, and intend to push its circulation vigorously in the country parishes of the Ottawa Valley.
