This remarkable statement to which we direct special attention, is from a Tennessee farmer. My age is 63. I suffered intensely from Catarrh 10 years. Had intense headache, took cold easily, had continual roaring and singing in my ears. My hearing began to fail, and for three years I was almost entirely deaf, and I continually grew worse. Everything I had tried, failed. In despair I commenced to use the Aerial Medication in 1886, and the effect of the first application was simply wonderful. In less than five minutes my hearing was fully restored, and has been perfect ever since, and in a few months was entirely cured of Catarrh. ELI BROWN, Jacksboro, Tenn.

HEALTH AND HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Quick Sally Lunn.—One cup of sugar, half cup of butter; stir well together, and then add one or two eggs; put in one good pint of sweet milk, and with sufficient flour to make a batter about as stiff as cake; put in three teaspoons of baking powder; bake and eat hot with butter for tea or breakfast.

Corn Bread.—Sift three quarts of corn meal, add a table-spoonful of salt, one teaspoonful baking powder, and mix sufficient water with it to make a thin batter. Cover it with a bread cloth and set it to rise. When ready to bake, stir it well, pour it into a baking pan, and bake slowly. Use cold water in summer and hot water in winter.

Celery Sauce.—Mix two tablespoons of flour with half a teacup of butter; have ready a pint of boiling milk; stir the flour and put butter into the milk; take three heads of celery, cut into small bits, and boil for a few minutes in water, which strain off; put the celery into the melted butter, and keep it stirred over the fire for five or ten minutes. This is very nice with boiled fowl or turkey.

Ham Croquettes.—One cupful of finely chopped cooked ham, one of bread crumbs, two of hot mashed potatoes, one large table-spoonful of butter, three eggs, a speck of cayenne. Beat the ham, cayenne, butter, and two of the eggs into the potato. Let the mixture cool slightly, and shape it like croquettes. Roll in the bread crumbs, dip in beaten egg and again in crumbs, put in the frying basket and plunge into boiling fat. Cook two minutes. Drain and serve.

Veal Soup.—To about three pounds of a joint of veal, which must be well broken up, put four quarts of water and set it over to boil. Prepare one-fourth pound of macaroni by boiling it by itself, with sufficient water to cover it; add a little butter to the macaroni, when it is tender strain the soup and season to taste with salt and pepper, then add the macaroni in the water in which it is boiled. The addition of a pint of rich milk or cream and celery flavor is relished by many.

Orange Pudding.—Peel and cut five sweet oranges into thin slices, taking out the seeds, pour over them a coffee cup of white sugar, let a pint of milk get boiling hot by setting it in a pot of boiling water, add the yolks of three eggs well beaten, one table-spoon of corn starch made smooth with a little cold milk; stir all the time; as soon as thickened pour over the fruit. Beat the whites to a stiff froth adding a tablespoon of sugar, and spread over the top for frosting; set it in the oven for a few minutes to harden; eat cold or hot (better cold) for dinner or supper. Berries or peaches can be substituted for oranges.

Almond Cream Cake.—On beaten whites of ten egg, sift one and a half goblets pulverized sugar, and a goblet of flour through which has been stirred a heaping teaspoon cream tartar; stir very gently and do not beat it; bake in jelly pans. For cream take a half pint sweet cream, yolks of three eggs, table-spoon pulverized sugar, teaspoon corn starch; dissolve starch smoothly with a little milk, beat yolks and sugar together with this, boil the cream, and stir these ingredients in as for any cream cake filling, only make a little thicker; blanch and chop fine a half pound almonds and stir into the cream. Put together like jelly cake while icing is soft, and stick in a half pound of almonds, split in two.

Roast Rabbit.—Empty, skin and thoroughly wash the rabbit; wipe it dry, line the inside with sausage meat, and force-meat (the latter of bread-crumbs, well seasoned and worked up). Sew the stuffing inside, skewer back the head between the shoulders, cut off the fore-joints of the shoulders and legs, bring them close to the body, and secure them by means of a skewer. Wrap the rabbit in buttered paper, keep it well basted, and a few minutes before it is done remove the paper, flour and froth it, and let it acquire a nice brown color. It should be done in three quarters of an hour. Take out the skewers, and serve with brown gravy and red-current jelly. To bake the rabbit, proceed in the same manner as above; in a good oven it will take about the same time as roasting. Most cooks garnish the rabbit with slices of lemon, and serve up with currant jelly. Sometimes the head is cut off before sending to the table but this is a matter of individual taste.

The people quickly recognize merit and this is the reason the sales of Hood's Sarsaparilla are continually increasing. Hood's "is on top."

It's hard getting through with your washing and cleaning, if you don't use Pearl-line. And you can use it, with great gain, upon any thing that you want made clean. In washing clothes, perhaps you won't believe that Pearl-line is harmless. It has been proved so to millions of women, over and over again, but perhaps you won't be convinced. Then use it for some thing that can't be hurt. Use it for washing dishes, for instance, and save work.

When you come to know it better and let it wash the clothes, you'll find that it saves the wear and tear as well as the work.

Beware of cheap imitations. 58, JAMES PYLE, N.Y.
