PRIME ON CROPS.

Prime in the daily stock holder tells of the heavy passenger traffic west, due to the prosperity of the farmers. It is the general opinion that the corn crop, except in one or two states, will turn out very disappointing in quantity and quality. Husking has been very disappointing. The winter wheat situation continues brilliant, with a large acreage and magnificent condition. Last year, at this time, a very small proportion of the crop was in the ground.

ROSSLAND.

The upper workings look exceedingly well. The crosscut on the six hundred level of the Leroi, which opened up 8 feet with hundred dollar ore on Sunday now shows 22.

No. 2 tunnel of the Jumbo, in which the big strike was made three weeks ago, is now almost through a chute of Pyrrhotite and coming into a second chute of quartz ore carrying tellurides. The face to-day averages 16 dollars. No. 3 tunnel is now the parallel ledge which is not yet opened.
