CATHOLIC.

The Foundling Hospital of Paris has been placed under the charge of jay nurses. The dismissal of Sisters was protested against, even by infidel journals.

The Roman correspondent of the Boston Pilot writes that an English Pilgrimage, under the direction of Lord Ripon, was expected to visit Rome during the Easter season.

Not long since, an entire village of eighty families, near Karpert, in Greater America, returned to the church.

Some of the provisions of the new ecclesiastical law of Russia are:-The liberty of the great seminaries, without the right of veto, to nominate superiors and professors; the suppression of the State examination of auplicants for Ordination; the re-establishment of the disciplinary power of the Holy See in Prussia; the suppression of the deposition of bishops and priests by the Ecclesiastical Court.

The State Commissioner of Common Schools, of Ohio, in his Annual Report to the General Assembly, pays a very high tribute to the system of teaching of the Christian Brothers, and to the surpassing excellence of their exhibit at the New Orleans Exposition.

Cultured scholars visiting Rome are loud in their denunciation of the vandalism displayed by the Italian Government, in their wauton destruction of historic monuments in that city.

A college has been founded in Rome for instruction in sacred music. The Emperor William has sent the Pope a costly gold cross, mounted with jewels, as a token of gratitude for the Vatican's mediation in the Caroline Islands dispute.

The Minor Capuchins of Spain have undertaken the Evangelization of the Caroline Islands. The first company has already sot out.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND.

CANTERBURY CATHEDRAL.—The work of restoration in the French Higuenot Church in the crypt of Canterbury Cathedral, undertaken as a memorial of the late Archbishop Tait, has now been completed, and the interior of the sacred edifice, which comprises the chantry of the Black Prince, is greatly improved. In regard to the proposal to raise an endowment fund of £3,000, so as to provide a permanent pastor's salary in connection with the foundation, it is stated that if one-half of the amount can be raised in Kent, the remainder has been promised by descendants of the Huguenots residing in London and the North of Ireland.

BAPTIST.

At the laying of the corner stone of the new Raptist church, on Spring Garden Road, on the 6th instant, referred to in our last issue, the pastor of the church, Rev. W. II. Cline, gave a short sketch of the history of Granville Street Church. He said that about 1818, a number of the members of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, becoming dissatisfied, separated and erected the old stone edifice on Granville street. A few years later, several openly professed the Baptist-faith, and the church was founded then with sixteen members. There is now a membership of 247, of which 59 had been added during the past two years. Since the formation, there have been ten pastors. The history of the church showed seasons of darkness and sunshine, but they had reason to be thankful for the prosperity accorded and pleasing prospects in which they now stood.

METHODIST.

On the 13th instant, the new Methodist Church, on the corner of Robie street and Cobourg road, was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies. It will be opened for Divine worship on Sunday next.

Last year, eleven new Methodist churches were dedicated in Chicago.
