

BOOKSELLER AND STATIONER

1907 ANNUALS

THE BOY'S OWN ANNUAL

For nearly two generations this annual has been conceded as the best book for Boys ever published. Its stories are by the best authors and it is full of interest from cover to cover.

Contains 832 pages, eleven large colored plates and upwards of 500 other illustrations. Bound in cloth boards, with bevelled edges, and attractively embossed in colors.

THE GIRL'S OWN ANNUAL

this year is larger and more attractive than ever. It appeals to Girls of all ages. It has a splendid collection of fiction by the best writers of the day, besides hundreds of other useful articles on all kinds of subjects in which girls are interested.

This volume also contains 832 pages, besides twelve beautiful colored plates and has hundreds of illustrations. It is bound in extra cloth, with bevelled boards embossed in colors.

No Xmas Stock is complete without these Books.

ORDER NOW.

Warwick Bros. & Rutter, Limited

Publishers for Canada,

Toronto