

moral character. His voice is harmonious and strong enough when he exerts it; it will grow stronger by time and exercise.

Mr. Delisle remains as he was the first minister he is to preach in French at such times as shall be judged expedient; he is also to preach occasionally in English, though not often; Mr. Tunstall is assistant and regular English preacher. He accounts to Mr. Delisle for the stated fees for marriages and burials, and no other fees are due; and Mr. Delisle in return is to pay the sum of 20*l.* a year to Mr. Tunstall. Both parties have agreed to these regulations, and I trust they will remove any ground of contest.—Let me beseech you and the Congregation to preserve order and promote peace, these are characteristics of true christianity, and are essential to the character of true members of the Church of England. Be it your endeavour to soften and quiet any uneasinesses, should any arise; though I have such an opinion of the prudence and good temper of both the gentlemen that I flatter myself there will be no just cause of any on their part. I feel myself peculiarly interested in the prosperity of your congregation.

At my late visitation here I thought it advisable to give some Injunctions to the Clergy, they are printed and I enclose a copy for your perusal. Some things are recommended to the Church-wardens and vestries of Parishes; and I beg leave to express my wishes that you would follow these recommendations; I think you must see the propriety of them.

“Mr. Tunstall will repair to Montreal whenever you judge it necessary; perhaps it will be time enough when the Church is ready for use, which I trust will be the case before winter.—He will go up sooner if you desire it, and I sincerely think he will be a great acquisition to you.

“I heartily recommend you and the congregation to the blessing and protection of Almighty God, and am in great haste.

Gentlemen,
Your affectionate Brother and humble Servant,
(Signed) Charles Nova Scotia.

The following is a copy of the Injunctions referred to in the above letter.

By the Right Reverend Charles by Divine permission Bishop of Nova-Scotia.

1st. That the Clergy be exemplary in their lives; and that by a diligent discharge of the duties of their functions, they endeavour to promote the spiritual welfare of their respective Flocks.

2d. That in the several ministrations of their office, they do punctually observe the Rubrics contained in the Book of common Prayer, and the Canons or Ecclesiastical constitutions published by authority in the year one thousand six hundred and three.

3d. That the Clergy in cities do wear their proper habits, on all public occasions, and as often besides as may be convenient; and it
