

Enthusiastic Criticism

OF THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE

CRITICISM of several kinds falls to the lot of nearly every publication, and the more vigorous the journal the more certain the vigour of the criticism. THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE is occasionally criticised adversely for one reason or another. Readers make protests now and again because of disagreement with the views of various writers. Then again there are the pleasant criticisms which warm the hearts of the editorial staff and the management. Here are two samples:

FROM THE UNITED STATES:

Box 26, CHESLEY, IDAHO, U.S.A.,
JULY 10th, 1906

THE ONTARIO PUBLISHING Co.,
TORONTO, CANADA.

Gentlemen,—

Enclosed please find money order for $2.50 in payment of one year's subscription to THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE.

I have hitherto bought it at the book stalls, but the best Magazine published north of the South Pole is not obtainable here.

Wishing your Magazine continued and increasing success, I remain,
Yours truly,

N. S. EARLY.

FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA :

The Week, of Victoria, says editorially :

"On the principle of encouraging home literature THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE should receive support in any case, but it has got past that stage and can fairly rest on its merits as a sound, up-to-date production. The June number is one of the best we have seen and fairly lifts the Magazine into the rank of the best American publications. Of late years the management has made a great advance in illustration and typography and it can now compare without disadvantage with its strongest competitors. Its letterpress is interesting and deals with live topics."
