

PARAGRAPHIC.

A GOOD CORN SHELLER FOR 25 CENTS.

A marvel of cheapness, of efficacy and of promptitude, is contained in a bottle of that famous remedy, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It goes right to the root of the trouble, there acts quickly but so painlessly that nothing is known of its operation until the corn is shelled. Beware of substitutes offered for Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—safe, sure and painless. Sold at druggists.

"The car is full of alumni," whispered Miss Beaconsreer to her friend from the West, as they both journeyed Cambridgeward in the horse-car. "Yes," said the Chicago girl, "and how it chokes one up, don't it? I wonder they do not open the ventilators."

One of the reasons why Scott's Emulsion has such a large sale is, because it is the best. Dr. W. H. Cameron, Halifax, N.S., says: "I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, for the past two years, and found it more agreeable to the stomach and have better results from its use than any other preparation of the kind I have ever used." Sold by all Druggists, 50c. and $1.00.

A certain Elginito was asked by a preacher why he didn't come to church oftener and bring his children. He replied that the little folks would make too much noise. "They can't make any more than I can," answered the preacher, and thus encouraged the fond father has ventured out.

Go up Top!—"Give an example of an immovable object," said the teacher. And the smart bad boy at the foot of class suggested three girls on the sidewalk. The teacher, who usually had to walk in the middle of the street herself, sent him right up to the head of the class and told him to stay there for a week.—Burdette.

"One of the most perfect instruments for sound instruction concerning the Church that has been offered to Churchmen. The whole temper of the book is courteous, kindly and humble. This book ought to be in the hands of every Churchman. Of all books upon this important subject it is the most readable. It is popular and attractive in style. In the best sense. We commend it most heartily to every Clergyman for personal help and parochial use. We would, if we could, place a copy in the hands of every member of the English-speaking race. And we are assured that, once begun, it will be read with interest from preface to conclusion. No better text book could be found for a class of adults, who desire to give a reason for their faith, and be Churchmen in reality.—Church Record.
