Sciatica

Cured.

Mr. William Miller whom this cut represents is a resident of Haliburton, Ont., but is now boarding at 281 Jarvis Street, where he will be for a few days. He was for several months a victim of a terrible attack of Sciatica, failed to get relief at Haliburton and came to Toronto, fell into the Medical Ethics Party, was well bled financially, got no relief, and returned home a cripple. Hearing of our wonderful cures he tried again, and was benefitted and the pain stopped by the first treatment. He is now quite well. Reader, we cure all kinds of chronic diseases, both of male and female, old and young, the errors of youth and the mistakes and indiscretions of maturer years. We cure deformities of the limbs, remove tumors and cancers, external and internal. We cure hundreds of cases that we cannot publish because of the nature of the disease. We likewise make the whole medical profession mad because we publish some of our cures, and then their bile is poured out in denunciation and epithets such as advertising quacks, but the secret of the tempest is the exposure of their profound ignorance, and the refusal of the victim to die and be respectfully buried by a regular (so-called) medical man. Some of the profession of this city are decidedly open-mouthed. We invite these men to gently close their lower jaws or we will publish case after case that was dying in their hands and cured by us, and give names of both doctor and patient. This is merely a gentle reminder to these gentlemen, some professors in the colleges, some hospital doctors, and others renowned men in private practice, to mind their own business and cease orthodox medical abuse.

Mention this paper.

EDWARD McCULLY, M.D.,

Association,*
