NEW LIGHTS; OR, LIFE IN GALWAY: A Tale of the New Reformation, by Mrs. J. Sadlier, 18mo of 450 pages, printed on fine paper, and illustrated with two original designs, price in muslin only 2s. 6d.

The main object of this story is to bring under the notice of Carbolies in America, and of Irish Catholies in particular, the neferious system of proselytism going on from day to day and from year to year in the remote and famine stricken districts of Ireland; the fearful persecutions and temptations by which the starving poor are incessantly assailed, and their steadast adherence (with comparatively few exceptions) to the ancient mith of their fathers.

NEW BOOKS, IN PRESS:

Will be ready, on the 15th May: DOCTRINAL AND SCRIPTURAL CATECHISM. By the Rev. Pere Collet, Doctor of the Sorbonne. Translated from the French, by Mrs. J. Sadlier. For the use of the Brothers of the Christian Schools. This is considered by competent judges as the most complete and at the same time, the most concise Catechism of the Christian Religion and of Scripture History that has yet been offered to the public. It is admirably adapted for adults requiring instruction, as well as for children. The answers are all so condensed that they are easily committed to memory; and there is not a single point connected with religion, either of doctrine, discipline, or ceremonial, that is not fully explained.

We know that this work requires only to be known to secure for it a very wide circulation. In order to place the work within the reach of every person, we have determined to put it at the following low prices; 12mo, 440 pages, half bound, 1s 101d; muslin, 2s 6d; to schools and colleges we will put them at £5 per 100.
