Ladies' Journal" Bible Competition, No. 9.

During the year ending with September last, the proprietor of the LADIES' JOURNAL has given Devery large and valuable lot of rewards to his abscribers, aggregating an immense amount of money. We are sure that the Pianos, Organs, Gold and Silver. Watches, Silver Tea Sets, Books, etc., etc., have given great satisfaction. A good deal of excitement has been caused by the advent of some of these costly prizes into the towns and villages of Canada and the Onited States. They have been sent to all parts almost of the two countries, quite a number even going to England and other distant places. Full lists of the winners are always published in the Ladies' Journal immediately at the close of each competition, names are given in full, together with the street and number, where possible, so inquiry can readily be made by those who are doubtful. There can be, therere, no fraud We can positively testify to the fairness of the matter ourselves, and we know everything is carried out exactly as promised For the benefit of those of our readers who de-are to compete, we give the plan in detail.

To the fifteen hundred persons who correctly answer the following Bible questions will be given, without exera charge, except for freight and packing of goods, beyond the regular half-dellar yearly subscription, the beautiful and costly rewards named below. In fact, he come the study of the Eible, but faculty staces at this part of the plan is not his sole sin, and goes on to explain that he has lost is on math money by dishonest agents, and has spent so much in valuable premiums to ensourage them to send large lists, that beceater he has decided to give these things direct to subscribers, for answering half dollar investment, as the Ladies' Journal consists of twenty pages of the choicest reading. The lights were extinguished, and screams and marker, and contains the sum and substance of grouns filled the air. About one hundred and many of the high-priced fashion papers, and fifty persons were wounded, some it is feared many of the light-pro-d fashion papers and magazines published in the States, and all for the low paper of half a dollar, or one year's subscription. It also contains two pages of the newest music, short and serial stories, household hints, fashion articles by the best authorities, finely illustrated. In short, it is about the best reactive publication we have a few papers. montally publication we know of anywhere for fifty cents, and it is as good as many at a dollar. Be sure to remember that everyone competing must send with their answers fifty cents by post-office or ler, serip, or small coin. They, therefore, pay nothing extra for the privilege of competing for these costly rewards, as fifty cents is the regular yearly subscription price of the Journal. The competition remains open only till fifteenth February next, and as long as the letter is post marked where mailed to the series of the series you may secure one of the middle rewards, and even if you answer on the last day (15th Feb.) and you live a good distance from Toronto, fifteen days being allowed after date of closing for letters to reach the office from dis tant points, you are almost certain to secure one of the consolation rewards. At all events we most heartily recommend it, and trust many of our readers will avail themselves of this excel lent opportunity of securing at once an excel-lent publication and a possibility of a piano, or gan, gold watch, silver tea set, or some other of the many rewards offered. DUBLIN, Dec. 30 .- A conference of nationalists of Dublin county, the mayor presiding, was held here to-day. The principle of paying Irish members of parliament was approved. Mr. Clancy, editor of the Irish Nation, was nominated to represent Dublin county in the House of Commons. In his address Clancy said any other nation persecuted as Ireland is would expel the English and substitute an Irish government. He declared that the Orange tory reign in Ireland was over. Mr. Healy, M.P., in an address at Glasgow yesterday denounced Mr. Campbell Bannerman, chief sccretary for Ireland, who, he said, knew no more about Ireland than he (Healy) knew about Scotland. "How would Scotchmen," he asked, "like me to rule Scotland, through scoundrels, robners and men guilty of unspeakable offences?" Mr. Healy said he would rather accompany Joe Brady to the gallows than slink into the prisoners' dock with Cornwall and French. He condemned O'Donovan Rossa's policy as criminal and stunid, but said he understood it because Rossa had been reared among the Irish people and knew their

Mr. Biggar, M P., speaking last night at Bolton, advised Irishmen to disown the whigs. He said that Earl Spencer had hanged a number of men whom he knew to be innocent. Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Bannerman knew Farl Spencer was a scoundrel. Members of the Irish National league were entitled to the thanks of Trishmen for exposing the rangality of the Irish executive.

Madrid, Dec. 30 .- In the senate to-day the minister of foreign affairs stated that he was doing his best to develop commercial relations with England. The essential conditions of the protocol of last December had been renewed. A heated and acrimonious debate took place in both chambers yesterday over a motion by the opposition calling for an investigation with a view to discover the person or persons who sold the document containing the text of the treaty between Spain and the United States to the New York Times. The debate took a wide range, and charges of malfeasance in office were made. It was finally announced that the government had furnished a copy to the Times, considering that the document was public property. This announcement caused a profound sensation, and brought the debate to a sudden termination. LONDON, Dec. 31.—The Times this morning has a ten column review of the events of Granada last night was more severe than any 1884. Referring to America, it says the abstract Thursday. The people were afraid to 1884. Referring to America, it says the absorbing topic of the year was the election of the president. The session of Congress ending March was remlered abortive, both parties desiring to avoid a direct issue on the question of tree trade which was momentarily shelved. The Democrats preferred to play a waiting game, hoping to regain control of the executive and the hore was filled. The project of a treaty with Nicaragua giving the United States control of the proposed canal has found little favor and will hardly be ratified by the present congress. Carro, Jan. 1 .- Gen. Wolseley ha received a small piece of paper with General Gordon's genuine seal on the back, dated December 15, saying that Khartoum is all right. A despatch has been received from the Mudir, stating that an Arab from the Mahdi's camp has reached Dongola. affirms that the Mahdi's followers are gathered in force twelve hours' march south of Omderman. They have repeatedly attacked Omderman, but have been repulsed with heavy loss and compelled to retreat. General Gordon, upon learning that Bedouin Arabs came to the wells during the night, sent armed boats to guard the wells and provent access thereto, thereby causing great suffering among the rebels, many of whom died from small-pox and dysentery. The Mahdi therefore withdrew his army to dabhara, two days from Omderman. Several triocs subsequently deserted. The Mahdi then told the principal chiefs that he in tended to march against the Muder of Dongola; the chiefs professed rendiness to follow if the Mahdi would charm off the bullets of the enemy by leading instead of following his troops. Next day the Mahdi told the chiefs he had seen in a dream that the Mudir was a saint, against whom it was useless to fight. These statements cause great alarm. Gen. Gordon's note was rolled up to the size of a senger's garment. Gordon estimates the Mahili's force from 2,000 to 8,000. Gordon spends the nights in ceaseless watch, visiting the outposts to see that every sentry guns mounted on each. He always examines the guns at daybreak to assure himself that they are properly primed and ready for action, then lies down and sleeps the greater part or the day. Gordon is described as cheerful. Five boats of the Black Watch contingent have arrived at Korti. At Cairo there is great rejoicing over the good tidings.

MADRID, Jan. 1.—It is probable that the King will visit Andalusia to personally inquire into the condition of the earthquake sufferers. Government delegates are visiting ly destroyed. The convent and town hall are razed to the ground. The inhabitants are gathered ontside the town where they are shivering around fires. Women and children are huddled together in carts and wagons. Sixty wounded persons are in a temporary ambulance. A hundred and ninety-two corpses have been taken from the rums and active efforts are being made to recover others. The mayor and several wealthy residents are among the victims. The mayor's wife remained buried waste deep in the ruins for eighteen hours. Many persons were rescued alive after being partly buried for twenty-six hours. Some were half crazed with fright. Piteous cries were heard in the ruins for twenty-four hours, but it was impossible to render assistance. Troops have since brought provisions to the needy. Similar tales are told of disasters in Albama. The inhabitants during the day wander about their ruined homes, risking their lives in an endeavor to save something from the wreck. They remain at night in improvised camps of carts, tents and sheds; all around the ruined town tower snow clad mountaing. The shock at remain in the houses and occupied the streets all night, it being the tenth shock since Tuesday, the panic was greatly increased. Ten thousand persons left the city yesterday. Shocks continue to be felt at Jean, Malaga, Benamargosa and Beliez. Several severe shocks were experienced at Torrax on Wednesday and Thursday, destroying a number of buildings. The town is completely abandoned. Three hundred and fifty corpses have been discovered at Orems, Delarcy, and two hundred and fifty persons there are suf-fering from injuries. National funds have been opened for immediate relief of sufferers to which government employees have been invited to subscribe a day's pay. land tax has been remitted in the suffering districts. A committee has been formed in each town to distribute the fund. It is reported that a government loan of three million pesetas will be raised for the relief of the SORE EYES Physicians told us that a pew-sore employed. They united in recommending AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. A few doses produced a perceptible improvement, which, by an adherence to your directions, was continued to a complete and permanent cure. No evidence has kince appeared of the existence of any sorofulous tendencies; and no treatment of any disorder was ever attended by more prompt or effectual results.

Yours traly, B. F. Johnson."
