DIVORCE MADY EASY .- There is an inclination on the part of some of our State Senators to tinker the Marriage relations during the present session of the Legislation, A Mr. Ramsay proposes the enactment of a "Personal License Bill" which would allow persons having an actual residence of five years' in the State, who can prove three years' wilful descrition or one year's cruel and inhuman treatment, to break the Marriage bond. We hope our worthy legislaters will not interfere in matters which do not concern them. Though we are opposed to Gridiron Legislation, still we should much prefer that our State legislators should devote themselves to that style of law-making than to what is now proposed. Squandering the people's money is after all, but a venial sin, compared with the crime of destroying their morals .- New York Tablet.

The Weekly Register, alluding to the Convention the French have made with China, which includes the restoration of all the property once belonging to the Church, says : -

"The Times is very bitter about this. The fact is that the Protestants, though they have spent meny hundreds of thousands sterling in Chinese missions, have no converts to show, and their missionaries have taken good care to keep out of harm's way.-The bloodiest step of which we ever heard upon their part was to ascend the river in a boat, and, after carefully reconnoitring the shore, to pull to land and throw a Chinese Bible and some tracts on the mud, as a crocodile deposite its eggs. Hence, having risked nothing, they lost nothing, and have nothing to reclaim. There are meanwhile no one knows how many hundreds of thousands of native Catholics who have hitherto held their religion at the risk of their lives, and, like the primitive Christians, have built churches in the intervals of persecution, to see them destroyed on its breaking out anew. Englishmen would be glad that the safety and property of these poor men should be restored, if they had been Mahornmedans, or worshippers of fire, or of Mumbo Jumbo. But they are Catholics, and hence this outcry The Times accordingly protests that Louis Napeleon might as well demand the restoration of the English estates that once belonged to the Church to their original destination. If the Times holds that the English Reformation stands exactly on the same footing of law and justice as the Chinese massacre and confiscation, its argument holds good; but its admissions are not flattering to the side it expenses. But this is the kind of reasoning that we must expect from the two-guines writers that the Times put on when it has to treat those subjects which it considers of minor importance, such as religion."

DONALD AND THE COCKNEYS.-Two sparks from London, while enjoying themselves among the heather in Argyleshire, last autumo, came upon a decentlooking shepherd reading on the top of a hill.— They accosted him by remarking: "You have a fine view here; you will see a great way." "On aye, on aye, a ferry great way." "Ah! you will see America from here?" "Ah! how that?" "Ou, juist wait till the mist gangs awa, an' you'll see the CHOLERA.

PERRY DAVIS-Sin-The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word of praise for it.— Experience has convinced me that for Heudache, Indigestion, pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, Severe Chills, Weariness, Common Colds, Houseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhw, Dysentery, Toothache, &c., there is nothing better than the Pain Killer. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls taken at thirty minutes' interral, in a wine glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the Cholera during the summer of 1843. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sourceign remedy, one teaspoonful caring the worst oase in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put it in the teeth it would stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimenial in its favor.

CLYDE, WAYNE Co., N. Y., March 10, 1857. Messrs S. W. Fowle & Co : I am happy to state that I have used the Oxygenated Bitters in my practice for the last three years in the treatment of Dyspepsia, General Debility, Indigestion, and Affections of the Liver, with the most satisfactory results; and would cheerfully recommend to those suffering from these distressing diseases to give this valuable modicine a trial.

Respectfully yours,

J. E. SMITH, M. D. Exerga, Ma., Sept. 30.

This certifies that I have recommended the use of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for Discusses of the Lungs, for two years past, and many bottles, to my knowledge, have been used by my patients, all with beneficial results. In two cases, where it was thought confirmed Consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure.

PARILLA and Cathabute Phile have done for me. I had been afflicted with Liver Complaint for six years, during which I was never well, and much of the time very sick. My liver was sore to the touch, and the Doctors said was congested. I suffered from sewere continuess and Diarrians charmanly. My skin was clammy and unbeslib; my eyesand skin often yellow. Occasionally I had a voracious appetite, but generally none at all. A dreadful sensation of oppression on my stomach, with languor and a gloomy sensation of sickness all over, kept me in anguish. You cannot know how much I suffered from an indescribable feeling of distress. The long continuance of this condition, without relief had worn me out so that I never expected to be better; but reading in the Christian Advocate of your Sarsaparilla, I commenced taking it with occasions ismall doses of chandlee, French and English, Carpets for Saloons, your Pills, to regulate the bowels as you direct .-From the first it had more effect upon my disorder than I supposed anything could have. J. C. Ayen & Co. Genes: I feel it my duty to so-knowledge what your Sarsapartile has done for me. Having inherited a Secondous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out is there on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and discussed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and case with one some, which was painful and brithsome beyond description. I tried usnry methodes and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospal Messanger that you had prepared an alterprive (Sarsaparilla), for I have from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Circinnari and got it and used it till it can'd me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a temponiful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the sude which after a while fell off. My skin is now char, and I know by my feelings that the disease is gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saving when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully.

Dr. J. C. Ayrr. Sir: I have been afflicted with a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and stock to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medione. J. FREAM.

Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every Ying, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man far some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Eppy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because be said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has enred me, and has so parifled my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of threat and hing compilaints, that it is useless here to publish the exidence of its virtues. Its unit-called excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulsaonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the carth. New are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some hiving trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and langs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cares which have wen so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.
