THE SCHOOL CASE.

The Privy Council Allow the Appeal of the Catholic Minority.

A cablegram was received from London yesterday announcing the very welcome, although not entirely unexpected news, that "the Privy Council has allowed the appeal of the Catholic minority."

To say that the receipt of the intelligence has been most pleasing to us is to put the matter very mildly. It is of course a distinct step forward towards the regaining of our rights, and will in that sense be a consolation and encouragement to all our people.

"I cannot tell you any more than that we Catholics will continue to demand redress of our grievances, until redress be given. On Feb. 15 a petition will be laid before the Governor General-in-Council. That petition will be signed by every Catholic of the Dominion. This question is no longer confined to Manitoba; it now is of interest to the Catholics of the entire Dominion, and regardless of party we Catholics will be a unit. The hierarchy of Canada is one on the point. Today the School Question is more alive than ever. We feel that our rights will be restored."

Death of Mrs. M. Hughes.

It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the death of Mrs. M. Hughes, widow of the late Michael Hughes, the well-known undertaker of this city, who, as our readers will remember himself passed away only a few weeks ago.
