

- (g) the implementation of cooperation projects or activities by associating Canadian private firms with partners in the private and public sectors of Burundi;
- (h) the encouragement and promotion of relations between firms, institutions and persons of the two countries; and
- (i) any other form of assistance which may be mutually agreed upon.

ARTICLE II

The Government of the Republic of Burundi shall submit requests to the Government of Canada through the Ambassador of Canada accredited to the Government of the Republic of Burundi, and the Government of Canada shall submit responses and proposals to the Government of the Republic of Burundi through the Ambassador of Burundi to Canada or by any other means which may be mutually agreed upon.

ARTICLE III

1. In support of the objectives of this Agreement, the Government of Canada and the Government of the Republic of Burundi may enter into subsidiary arrangements in respect of specific projects involving one or several components of the program described in Article I, with the exception of those referred to in paragraphs f) and g).
2. The projects referred to in paragraphs f) and g) of Article I shall be covered by a subsidiary arrangement between the Government of the Republic of Burundi and the recipient of the contribution of the Government of Canada.
3. Unless otherwise indicated, subsidiary arrangements regarding contributions of the Government of Canada shall be considered administrative arrangements.
4. Subsidiary arrangements shall make specific reference to this Agreement and the terms of this Agreement shall, unless otherwise indicated, apply to such arrangements.
5. The projects referred to in paragraphs f) and g) of Article I shall be covered by contribution arrangements between the Government of Canada, acting through the
