

15. Military police. The Commander shall provide for military police for any camps, establishments or other premises which are occupied by the Force in the Host State and for such areas where the Force is deployed in the performance of its functions. Elsewhere military police of the Force may be employed, in so far as such employment is necessary to maintain discipline and order among members of the Force or to conduct investigations relating to the Force or its members. For the purpose of this Regulation, the military police of the Force shall have the power to take into custody any member of the Force who thereupon shall be transferred as soon as possible to the custody of his own national contingent commander pending any action taken in accordance with paragraph 13 of the present Regulations. Nothing in this Regulation is in derogation of the authority of arrest conferred upon members of a national contingent vis à vis one another.

CHAPTER IV. General Administrative, Executive and Financial Arrangements

16. Authority of the Secretary-General. The Secretary-General of the United Nations shall have authority for all administrative and executive matters affecting the Force and for all financial matters pertaining to the receipt, custody and disbursement of voluntary contributions in cash or in kind for the maintenance and operation of the Force. He shall be responsible for the negotiation and conclusion of agreements with Governments concerning the Force, the composition and size of the Force being established in consultation with the Governments of Cyprus, Greece, Turkey and the United Kingdom, and the manner of meeting all costs pertaining to the Force being agreed by the Governments providing contingents and by the Government of Cyprus. Within the limits of available voluntary contributions he shall make provisions for the settlement of any claims arising with respect to the Force that are not settled by the Governments providing contingents or the Government of Cyprus. The Secretary-General shall establish a Special Account for the United Nations Force in Cyprus to which will be credited all voluntary cash contributions for the establishment, operation and maintenance of the Force and against which all payments by the United Nations for the Force shall be charged. The United Nations financial responsibility for the provision of facilities, supplies and auxiliary services for the Force shall be limited to the amount of voluntary contributions received in cash or in kind.

17. Operation of the Force. The Commander shall be responsible for the operation of the Force and, subject to the limitation in Regulation 16, for arrangements for the provision of facilities, supplies and auxiliary services. In the exercise of this authority he shall act in consultation with the Secretary-General and in accordance with the administrative and financial principles set forth in Regulations 18-23 following.

18. Headquarters. The Commander shall establish the Headquarters for the Force and such other operational centres and liaison offices as may be found necessary.

19. Finance and accounting. Financial administration of the Force shall be limited to the voluntary contributions in cash or in kind made available to the United Nations and shall be in accordance with the Financial Rules and Regulations of the United Nations and the procedures prescribed by the Secretary-General.
