

For some reason, this bold, forward-looking vision of Canada frightens our critics.

They have opted for the politics of fear and anxiety. They offer you policies for the timid, not policies for the bold.

Their lack of faith in enterprising Canadians would lead us back to the nineteenth century.

We believe in a Canada that is enterprising and innovative.

As Paul Reichmann was quoted as saying last fall in Macleans magazine:

"Americans work hard. Canadians work better. We will prosper in a free trade deal."

We share that view.

I ask you to judge which vision of Canada will lead us successfully into the next century.

Thank you.
