

Mr. Clark observed that, "under the capable direction of Mr. Pearson, the Canadian Institute for International Peace and Security has already become a well-established and respected institution which is making a valued contribution to the quality of discussion in Canada on international peace and security issues. I am confident that under the direction of Mr. Wood, already widely respected for his experience with and knowledge of the complexities of the international scene, the Institute will build on its strengths and fully meet the purposes for which it was established by Parliament".
