Mrs. Walter Lyman,
83 Redpath Crescent,
Montreal.

Dear Mrs. Lyman:-

I think you would like to know of the discourteous treatment received by the representative of McGill University when he sought admission to the reception given last Friday night to Lord and Lady Astor.

Finding it impossible to be present myself and learning also that neither Dr. Adams, the Vice-Principal, nor Dean Laing could go, I asked Professor W.D. Tait if he and Mrs. Tait would go and represent McGill. He followed the instructions which you gave to my Secretary as to notifying the attendant at the door of his identity, but this made no impression upon that individual. Professor Tait also besought the attendant to take his card to you. This the attendant also refused to do, so there was nothing left for Dr. Tait but to pay his admission fee and appear in his private capacity.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.
