

October 3, 1931.

Dr. Stephen Leacock,
McGill University.

My dear Stephen,

I cannot tell you how much I appreciate your offer to go to the Teachers' Convention next Friday morning at ten o'clock and speak to them in my stead. It will be a help in time of need.

I am sending you a little memorandum I used when speaking to the Protestant Commission on this subject.

Ever yours faithfully,