

PRIVATE BILLS—continued.

respecting notice suspended, 639; rates, tolls, fees, or fines, filled up by committee on bill, Ib.; letters patent or agreement attached to certain bills, Ib.; second reading, 640; rarely opposed in house, Ib.; objections generally made in select committee, Ib.; principles which guide house on second reading, 641; referred to certain select standing committees, 641, 642; register kept of all bills, 642; order of reference discharged, 642, 643; fees and charges payable after second reading, 644.

V. Committees: Lists hung up in houses, 646; no bill considered until after due notice thereof, Ib.; rule sometimes suspended, Ib.; power to examine witnesses under oath, 647; questions decided by majority of voices, including chairman who has a casting vote, Ib.; petitions for and against a bill, referred, Ib.; rules respecting persons affected by proposed legislation, 648; proceedings, 649 et seq.; amendments, 651, 654; signed by chairman, Ib.; preamble not proven, 651, 653; every bill must be reported, 653; attention of houses directed to special provisions, Ib.; amendments infringing standing orders, 655; report, 656, 659; no quorum, 658; ordered to meet and proceed with bill, Ib.; time for receiving reports extended, 659; no reference to committee of whole in the Senate, 659-660; reference to such committees in the Commons, 660; no important amendment made at this stage except after one day's notice, 661; bills referred back to standing committees in case of material amendments, 661-662; when amended by the Senate, 668.

VI. Third Reading: No amendments in Commons except after notice, and then in committee of the whole, 661, 662; may be amended (after notice) in Senate,

PRIVATE BILLS—continued.

662; consent of the crown given in certain cases, 662; passage, 663; title awarded, Ib.

VII. Divorce Bills; marriage and divorce within jurisdiction of parliament, 668-669; publication of notice, 669; presentation of petition, Ib.; service of notice 670-673; proof of service by declaration, under 37 Vict. c. 37, required by rule 73, 671; exemplification of proceedings in court, 673; first reading of bill, 673-674; cost of printing bill, 674; proceedings on second reading, 674-675; before select committee, 675-677; petition from one of the parties for aid in maintaining defence, 677; report of committee, 677-678; third reading, and communication to the Commons, 678; evidence no longer published in journals, Ib.; reference to lords' procedure, 679; in the Commons, 679 et seq.; referred after second reading to committee on private bills, 680; no longer reserved for her majesty's pleasure thereon, 569, 573, 680.

Rates and tolls imposed in the Senate, 664.

Amendments made by either house, 668; read second time and agreed to, Ib.; disagreed to, etc., Ib.; sometimes referred to select standing committee, Ib.

PRIVILEGES AND POWERS OF PARLIAMENT: claimed at beginning of new parliament, 186-7, 231 n.; statutes, relative to, 187-188; their nature, 188-189; members privileged in their attendance on parliament, 189-191; exempt from arrest on civil process, 190; need not serve as jurors, or attend as witnesses, 191; breaches of privilege—libels and reflections on proceedings of house, or its members, 192-193; publication in newspapers of proceedings of select committees, 193-194; the assaulting, threatening, or challenging of members,