

All the district Judges	21,700
Congress	143,591
Treasury Department	55,050
Department of State	6,300
Department of War	11,250
Commissioners of old accounts	13,300
Loan Offices	13,250
Western Territory	11,000
Amount of Pensions	5,267
Contingencies	20,264

Total 352,466 or
In British Money £. 79,304 17 0sterl.

The Revenues.

The American revenue, for 1793, is stated to be 4,400,000 dollars, exclusive of what may arise from the sale of lands in the Western Territory; there is likewise upwards of the value of 5,000,000 dollars in bullion, lying in the Bank of the United States.

Estimate of Expence for the Year 1794.

	Dols.	Cents.
The whole Civil List for 1794, is	397,201	6
Extraordinaries for Public Works, Benevolences, &c. -	147,693	43
Estimate of the War Expences for 1794 - - - - -	1,457,936	1
Total	2,002,830	50

The Dollar is 4s. 6d. sterling; and the Cent is the hundredth part of a Dollar.

The celebrated Mr. Thomas Paine, in his letter to Mr. Secretary Dundas, published in London in the month of June, 1792, and who on this subject, (without offending any party) may be entitled to credit, gives a statement of the expences of the American government in the following words:

The expences of all the several departments of the General Representative Government of the United States of America, extending over a space of country nearly