

The French and Indian War, 1755-1760

Pouchot's Memoir; One of Fifty Copies

18 Pouchot (M.). Memoir upon the Late War in lish, 1755-1760. Followed by Observations
New Details Concerning the Manners and Cu Maps. Translated and Edited by Franklin trations. 2 volumes, large quarto, origi opened, pp. 269;283, index, Printed (by J Roxbury, Mass., 1866.

** Exceedingly rare. Large Paper Copy, only fifty copies were issued. Although orians engaged upon the special period in our public libraries or in private c

The above is an immaculate copy in p paper since the day of its publication from the famous Munsell Press; the type excelled by any American printer.

A valuable statement of events of th elsewhere obtainable. The editor and t index is very thorough, covering sixteen

"Our impressions of these events have who often evinced a partisan spirit in when they sought to leave a faithful re ment of what they saw on their side. T nessed from an English camp, might app loop-hole of a fort, or from behind the and faithful knowledge of the whole sub of the historians of both parties."- Pr

The author, who was an Engineer and period of the War, witnessed the events Levis; all of which he described with g events of the War, he gives details fro French authorities. Forts Niagara and and he gives full details of the Sieges the English. One prominent feature of poses the frauds and corruption of the

The numerous fine maps and illustrat

Full-page Plan of Fort Levi;- Foldi gements at Lake George, 1755, with a (folding) of the Forts Ontario & Oswego Ontario, 1756;- French Plan (folding) 1756;- Folding Plan of Fort Niagara, F
Map of the Attack on Ticonderoga, Major Folding Map of the Village of Rome, N.
of Fort Schuyler, Presented to Col. Gar (folding);- Full-page steel engraved Plan of Fort la Presentation;- Folding River St. Lawrence by the Army of Gen.
Folding Sketch of Mohawk River and Wood Fort Bull, Fort William, and the German Folding Map, Carte des Frontiers France Montreal jusque au Fort de Quesne;- F
New York;- Folding Map of the Country son to William Tryon, 1771;- Full-page Falls in the Mohawk River; South-West View of the City of New York; Lower Ca Great Cataract Little Senecas River, La