SECT. VIII. Of MASSACHUSETTS-BAY.

We lost wenty fishing vessels on the Cape-Sable shore, by the negligence of our Guarda la Costas. Captain Carver takes a French privateer from Placentia of fortyfive men. Upon the frontier of Virginia, the French and their Indians murder many inhabitants.

Upon advice of a fußpenfion of arms between Great-Britain and France in Europe, the Indians applied for an accommodation by fubmiffion; accordingly at Portfmouth of New-Hampfhire, July 11, 1713, the Indian delegates had a congress with the commiffioners of the New-England colonies; the basis of the fubmiffion was the treaty at Penobscot, Aug. 11, 1693, and that any difference between a Briton and Indian, shall be isflued in a British court of judicature. These Indians were called of the rivers of St. John's, Penobscot, Quenebec, Amerescogin, Saco, and Merrimack; Mauxis was their chief.

3. Governor Shute and lieutenant-governor Dummer's Indian war [z]. The Canada millionaries, 1717, perfuaded the Indians, with threatenings, to claim fome lands fettled by the English; this was compromised at Arrowfick in August. Anno 1719, the Indians were moved by the Canada French to renew the fame claims, but a small fcout of fixty men kept them in awe. Anno 1720, the Indians were advifed by the French to be more infolent, by killing cattle, and threatening the lives of the inhabitants; colonel Walton, with 200 men, brought them to fubmiffion, and received four Indian hoftages for their future good behaviour. The Canada French continuing unealy because of our enlarged settlements; anno 1721, M. Croizer from Canada, M. St. Cafteen from Penobscot, Rolle, and De la Chasse French missionaries. with about 300 Indians, make a general appearance at Arrowfick, an illand of Sagadahock, threatening, that if the English did not remove from the claimed Indian lands in three weeks, they would kill the people, burn
