

CONTENTS.

	PAGE.
INTRODUCTION.....	1

CHAPTER I.

On the frequent use of the term memory, and divine benevolence. —Memory. Importance of understanding the nature and strength of the memory. The action of the memory. A power in us by which we think. Of the use and application of different terms to the memory. Of words, of figures, and of facts. ....	5
---	---

CHAPTER II.

Of the position of thoughts when they are forgotten.—Thoughts not shelved up in the memory. Thoughts forgotten. Where are the thoughts we have forgotten? Propositions. Do thoughts exist beyond the sphere of the soul's action? Memory said to imply a resurrection of thought. Is memory a resuscita- tion of dormant thought? A conscious perception is thinking.
--	--