MAY FORM TRAINING

CORPS IN EARLSCOURT A meeting was held last evening in Earlscourt public school, under the auspices of the Toronto Military Association, for the purpose of forming a corps in the district. Dr. Noble outlined the aims and objects of the association, and stated that so far they had been successful in establishing branches in twenty schools in the city with a total membership of about 2500. He expected that every member would be furnished with a rifle soon, and they would be taught to shoot at miniature ranges, which would be fitted up in the schools. Drills would take place two nights each week under competent instructors.

place two nights each week under competent instructors.

Some objection was raised by members of a local rifle club, who claimed that their organization, which was recognized by the militia department, was meeting the needs of the district. The meeting was adjourned until next Thursday evening.

SCARBORO TOWNSHIP.

Councillor George Little's name is freely mentioned as the most likely candidate for the position of second deputy reeve, which has been created by the township's development. He has always taken an active in crest in municipal affairs, and his friends would be glad to see him a member of the county council.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 12.—Following the weak wheat markets of this side on Wednesday, Liverpool cables, while lower, were not as weak as expected, which was responsible for a steady opening here. The liquidation, was resumed again, however, causing prices to decline sharply. About noon the decline from yesterday's close was %c to 1%c, but the tendency was for a reaction. July wheat was sold for the first time today at $1.24%. At the close wheat was unchanged to %c higher from Wednesday; oats %c lower to %c higher, and flax ic to 2%c higher.

The cash demand was good for all grades of wheat, but few offerings were being placed on the market. Oats, barley and flax were quiet.

Attendance was large at the continued auction sale of rejected army horses at the Union Stock Yards yesterday. A good proportion of the buyers were farmers, who secured many bargains in young breeding stock.

The horses sold all the way from $27.50 to $137.50, making an average of $88.75 each.

All buyers were satisfied and pleased with their purchases. The sale will continue today at 11 a.m., when it is expected that sellers will cut out what they have left to get away tomorrow.
