

"I will confine myself principally to the Riel "question, as that is almost the sole issue. I have "said had I been on the banks of the Satskatch"ewan I would have taken up my gun and used it.
"I NOW REPEAT IT. We are here on the "classic ground of Canadian liberty. In the grave-"yards of this country are found the bones of those "who were not afraid to face English bullets, and "it is for you, gentlemen, to follow their patriotic
"example, and to avenge the unfortunate Metis
"leader!"

Turn out, you brave, good, loyal citizens and welcome this brave and honorable man (?)—this patriot, this friend of Canada (?).

Turn out, muster yourselves in strong array, you brave boys of the 7th Battalion! and welcome your friend. Hold your peace; nay, rather applaud this Frenchman while he tells you he "would shoulder his musket against you."
