NEW PRESIDENT OF EXHIBITION

J. G. Kent Was Elected at Annual Meeting, and Geo. H. Gooderham Made Life Member.

At the annual meeting of the exhibition directors, held in the city hall yesterday morning, the report of the executive, dividing the directorate into sections known as the city council, manufacturers, liberal arts and miscellaneous, the agricultural, each with equal representation, after a lively discussion, was adopted. The report also provided that the name be changed to the Canadian National Exhibition Association. J. G. Kent was elected as the new president of the association, in place of Geo. H. Gooderham, M.L.A., who retired.

RAIN INSURANCE ALL PAID OUT

Many Fall Fair Associations Had to Avail Themselves of the Government Grant.

With about 500 delegates in attendance, the twelfth annual convention of the Ontario Association of Fairs and Exhibitions, opened in No. 1 court room at the city hall yesterday afternoon. In point of attendance and amount of work planned the convention is the largest ever held in the history of the association.

RAIN INSURANCE ALL PAID OUT

Many Fall Fair Associations Had to Avail Themselves of the Government Grant.

The president, J. V. Simmons, Frankford, in his address, approved of the field crop competitions which were doing such excellent work in the province. The grants to societies for losses sustained in wet weather had been participated in by 106 societies. So wet was the weather during exhibition time last fall, that the whole of the $10,000 grant had been used, only four of the 106 beneficiaries, however, receiving the maximum grant of $800, while a number received $200, but the balance had to be apportioned on a downward scale. The consumption of the entire grant

William Davis Killed While Fixing a Rope Which Controlled Hotel Freight Hoist.

William Davis, an employee of the King Edward Hotel, was killed by being crushed yesterday afternoon between a descending freight hoist and the sidewalk on Colborne-st., at the rear of the hotel.

Belfast Meeting Stirs Winnipeg

Orangemen and Roman Catholics Alike Prepare for Special Bulletins To-night.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 7.—Great interest in the situation at Belfast has been aroused in Winnipeg and other sections of the west. The Knights of Columbus and Ulster and the Orange lodges have arranged for special bulletins to-morrow night from Belfast. The Orange Lodges of Manitoba have sent $500 to Ulster to fight home rule.

CHURCHILL'S MOTHER NOT GOING

LONDON, Feb. 7.—Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, left late to-day for Belfast, where he will address the big home rule meeting. At the last moment it was decided not to permit his mother to accompany him. She is well advanced in years, and it was feared that the excitement which is expected to attend the meeting would prove too much for her. She had planned to go, and had announced she would see her son thru the affair.

Why Gompers Said "Go to"—WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 7.—President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, to-day told the court which is trying him, Frank Morrison and John Mitchell for contempt, that when he wrote "Go to"—with its injunction, "he had used the expression in the Shakespearean sense, and not a profane one."

HARBOR OFFICE WILL BE MOVED

Local Mariners Object, Because it Means Delay in Getting Clearance Papers.

Strong objections are being raised by local marine men to the removal of the office of Harbormaster Postlethwaite from the board of trade building to the Bell Telephone building on Adelaide-street. It is claimed that captains of lake vessels that make Toronto a port of call will be put to a great deal of inconvenience in getting their clearance papers by the removal.
