HOUSING PROBLEM.

War Veteran Say City Should Build on its Own Land.

Many instances can be shown in which as many as three and four families are living in small cottages. This was pointed out last night by G. H. Gustar, secretary of West To-ronto G, W. V. A., who stated that the housing problem in Toronto was be-coming more serious each month. Returned soldiers were coming back in hundreds, said the secretary, and Veterans' Counsel Asks for Investiga tion by Others Than Police Commissioners.

Denied the hoped for appointment of a crown commission to investigate the action of certain members of the forento police force on the Saturday night of the recent riots, the G. W.

V. A. of the Dominion, has thru its counsel, Hartley Dewart, K.C., request-ed the city council to have this action on the part of the police investisated by a body other than the police hissioners. In his letter to Mayor Church upon this matter. Mr. Dewart has pointed out that the city council has the power to appoint a county judge to carry cut such an in-He further points out that at the time the riots took place the G.W.V.A. was holding a Dominion convention, was the cynosure of the entire Dominion, and that while it relessly cut down by the police. Many such cases had been brought to the attention of the association. At the same time the G. W. V. A. at this convention placed itself on record as being utterly opposed to all forms of

The C.P.R. employes at the Union Station who are not organized were the guests of the evening, and Mr. Lane explained the obpresented the returned soldier, it de-idedly represented that man, onecidedly represented that man, one-legged or one-armed who was ruth-in its ranks. It has in Canada a total membership of 5000, comprising em-ployes of both the G.T.R. and the C. N.R. R. P. Neal, international grand president of the brotherhood, will address the local at the same hall on Saturday night. By that time a number of C.P.R. employes will have joined up. Mr. Neal is said to have been partly responsible for the adoption of the McAdoo schedule by the G.T.R. and other railroads in Canada. Freight handlers and other station employes received to day an increase n wages of thirty per cent. above the sturned soldier who was discharged rates in force five months ago. DROWNING ACCIDENTAL.

Without leaving their seats, the jury last night at the morgue, before Coro-ner Dr. C. J. Currie, returned a verdict of accidental drowning in the case of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Neal, who was drowned at Scarboro Beach, together with her little son, and whose body was recovered on Aug. 15 by some boys of the Hunt Club. Hilliard Lang, of the live saving station, told of the finding of the body, and Mrs. A. Hynes, who lived with Mrs. Neal, said that on the morning of Aug. 13 Mrs. Neal and her little boy left home, saying they were going for a car ride. R. E. Russell, a bank clerk, told of finding the body about a quarter of a mile from the club house, and Paul Baker stated he had seen the body of the boy floating off Neville Park boule-vard, but had been unable to reach it.
