Very light receipts of cattle, together with a comparatively slow trade and general inactivity, were the outstanding features of yesterday's trading on the Union Stock Yards. The demand for butcher cattle is not very good, but taken all round on the comparatively light trading what selling there was was generally steady at the week's decline on butcher steers and heifers. The choice qualify steers are holding steady with last week, and some of the buyers contend this class is stronger.

The stocker and feeder trade is weak, the week's decline having apparently

A FEW REPRESENTATIVE SALES.

On the Union Stock Yards Exchange during the week, Ollie Atwell (Jos. Atwell & Sons) bought, in all, 400 cattle; of these 200 were butcher cattle, steers and heifers, and cost from $10 to $12.55 per cwt. One load of short-keep feeders, 25 in the bunch, cost $12.25 per cwt.; four loads, feeders, good quality, 800 to 900 lbs., cost from $10 to $11: one load, 700-lb, stockers, cost from $8.75 to $9.25; two loads, light, mixed steers and heifers, weighing from 500 to 600 lbs., cost from $20 to 600 lbs. cost Straw, loose, per ton... 28 00 30 00 Straw, loose, per ton... 28 00 35 traw, loose, per ton... 28 00 35 tr per cwt. One load of short-keep feeders, 25 in the bunch, cost $12.25 per cwt.; four loads, feeders, good quality, 800 to 900 lbs., cost from $10 to $11; one load, 700-lb, stockers, cost from $8.75 to $9.25; two loads, light, mixed steers and heifers, weighing from 500 to 600 lbs., cost from $7.50 to $9. Practically all these cattle have been reshipped out to Ontario points, the balance to United States points. Mr. Atwell told The World that the market for stockers and feeders during the while it was from 25c to 40c lower, was pretty well cleaned out.

Hogs—Receipts. 1,600; 15 to 25 cents higher; heavy and mixed, $18.15 to $18.25; yorkers, $18.15; light yorkers, $16.50 to $17.50; pigs, $15.50 to $16.50; throw-outs, $12 to $16; stags, $10 to $13.
Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 1,200; lambs 20 cents higher; lambs, $11 to $17.35; others unchanged.

HIDES AND WOOL The stocker and feeder trade is weak, the week's decline having apparently acted as a deterrent to the presence of farmers, very few of them being on the market this week. Milkers and springers are not in very active demand, but an extra good cow will always sell well. Tucker and Mooney snipped out 22 very fine Holstein springers yesterday to Quebec, that ought to make money for somebody. The outlook is for steady prices at least for the good to choice steers.

In the small stuff good veal calves seemed to be a trifle firmer, but the heavy fat ones are hard to unload. The lambs, too, were a bit steadier with sheep unchanged.

The run of hogs was around 1250, and the price from 16c to 16%c, and choice lots, 16½c fed and watered.
