MARIE SEEKS DIVORCE

Daughter of Grand Duke Would Separate From French Count.

Berlin, Feb. 1 .- It is reported in various quarters that the Duchess Marie of MecklenburgeStrelitz, daughter of the reigning Grand Duke of Mectenburg-Strelitz, Adolphe Frederick, is about to enter a suit for divorce against Count George Jametel, a Frenchman. Their romantic marriage In 1909 caused a stir among the minor royal houses. No confirmation of the report can be obtained.

Duchess Marie, it was alleged, several years ago, after an adventure with a servant of her father's household, left Germany, and went to France. At a seaside resort in that country she met Count Jametel, the son of a patent medicine manufacturer and married him. It is said the Infanta Eulalie engineered the match. It was reported in 1900 that owing to difference between her husband and her family the duchess had taken sides with her blood relations and left the count.
