BOLSHEVIKI CLAIM CAPTURE OF MORE PLACES U. S. COAL MINERS ARE FIGHTING COURT INJUNCTION

BLIZZARD THAT HAS RAGED A WEEK IN SOUTH ALBERTA IS CAUSING MUCH HARDSHIP

Homesteaders Have Been Prevented From Getting in Feed for Stock and Food Supplies for Their Families.

Calgary, Nov. 8.—Cut off by weather conditions from their coal supply, and through the same conditions prevented from hauling in hay, ranchers and homesteaders of the south country are experiencing the worst situation at present in the history of that area, according to persons who have been down through the district. Jack Lincke, well known in Calgary, has just returned from a trip through that area, and says that many of the ranchers are in a desperate condition.

"Added to the shortage of feed, which forced many of the small cattlemen to dispose of their herds and others to curtail their holdings to a mere handful," said Mr. Lincke, "the blizzard of a week, and the continued severe weather has prevented hauling in of the necessary sustenance for man and beast. The region hit hardest is that lying between Lethbridge, Magrath and the international boundary in the vicinity of the McIntyre lease. In much of this district homesteaders must haul their coal from near Lethbridge by team, distances ranging from 20 to 40 miles. Due to feed shortage, it has been necessary to haul hay the same distance."

HOLD-UP MAN SHOOT RESTAURANT CASHIER

Unknown Individual at Montreal Escapes After Inflicting Wound.

CASH IS UNTOUCHED
Victim of Unknown Criminal in No Immediate Danger.

Montreal, Nov. 8.—Early this morning a man wearing a returned soldier's button entered the uptown branch of Walton's restaurant on St. Catherine street and demanded the contents of the till from Joe Ginsberg, the cashier. On refusal he pulled an automatic and shot the cashier through the shoulder, and then ran away.

There was about $200 in the till at the time. Ginsberg was taken to the general hospital, where it was stated his wound is not yet serious. His assailant has not yet been captured.

Ginsberg is in no immediate danger, the doctors stated later today. The bullet penetrated the breast and came out through the shoulder at the back. Police investigation in the restaurant led to the discovery on the outside of the cashier's wrist of a flattened bullet from an automatic revolver, and inside the cage on the floor was found the discharged shell.

The cash in the register was untouched.

FREIGHT STEAMER IN PERILOUS POSITION

Crew Is Still Aboard Vessel Aground Off Bic.

Quebec, Nov. 8.—The latest reports from Palmer Point indicate the session of the national assembly sub-committee investigation into the war.

Capt. von Bartenbach, explaining the difficulty of communicating by wireless with submarines away from their base, related how seven Dutch ships were sunk owing to a submarine being submerged and falling to get a message giving permission for the vessels to pass. This severely strained diplomatic relations with Holland, according to Capt. von Bartenbach.

Admiral von Koech criticised Admiral von Tirpitz for the interview which the minister of marine had with an American newspaper correspondent in December, 1914, in which the submarine war was predicted.

G. T. R. BILL GIVEN THIRD READING IN CANADIAN SENATE

Measure for Acquiring Road Out of Committee Stage.

AMENDMENTS DEFEATED
Bill Is Passed Without a Division in Upper Chamber.

Ottawa, Nov. 7.—The fight in the Senate on the bill providing for the acquisition of the Grand Trunk Railway came to a close tonight, when the bill was reported from committee and given third reading without a division.

At the morning sitting, Sir James Loughheed gave notice of an amendment providing for the arbitration of all the stocks to be acquired on the basis that a 4 per cent dividend should not yield a dividend in excess of five million dollars.

At the afternoon session this amendment was changed, because the agreement with the Grand Trunk provides that the 4 per cent preference shares are to be treated as debenture stock, the Government becoming responsible for the interest amounting to about $2,500,000 to be paid upon them. By this change it is provided that the dividends including this sum must not exceed $5,000,000.

An amendment by Senator Lynch-Staunton, providing that the award should not exceed $4,372,383, the average dividend paid on the stocks for ten years preceding 1914, was rejected.

Rapid Headway.

With these amendments disposed of, rapid headway was made with the main clauses of the bill at the evening sitting, and it was reported from committee and given third reading shortly after 9 o'clock.

An amendment was accepted from Senator Belive, providing that claims of the Grand Trunk and the Grand Trunk Pacific should not be extinguished by the bill.

In committee on the Grand Trunk bill, Sir James Loughheed announced that two amendments to the bill would be moved, one providing for a limit on the amount of the debenture stock, which are being acquired.

Senator Foster of Montreal, took strong exception to an editorial in the Winnipeg Free Press, criticising the attitude of the Senate on the Grand Trunk bill, and stating that, should the bill be rejected, the question of Senate reform would become a live issue.

Senator Foster said that he was in a way connected with the C. P. R., and for years had held no stock in the company. The editorial, he said, was "so far as he was concerned, and he believed also so far as other members of the Senate were concerned."

Made Sacrifice.

On the other hand, he said, he had been associated with the Grand Trunk affairs, and he could not therefore be accused of any animosity to that company. He had been president of the St. Lawrence and Champlain Railway, a part of the Canadian Pacific system, and from this post he had resigned because of his opposition to the proposal of a matter of principle, he had made a sacrifice in the interests of the public, and he could not therefore be accused of any animosity to that company.

Hon. Robertson then gave notice that the amendment to clause six would provide that the value of the stocks to be acquired should be fixed at $100,000,000, which would be paid in four per cent debenture stock.

Further provided that the text of the bill should be amended so that the amount was not to be taken as an interest on the stocks to be acquired.

Ignored Assets.

Senator Robertson explained that the limit of the award as fixed by the amendment was larger than that provided for in the amendment of which he had given notice.

Senator Loughheed explained that the limit of the award as fixed by the amendment was larger than that provided for in the amendment of which he had given notice.

Senator Foster asked if provision would be made for taking into consideration the undisclosed liabilities of the Grand Trunk.

At this point the Prince of Wales and party arrived in the Senate, and proceedings were suspended. His royal highness shook hands with the speaker and with all the members of the Upper House in attendance.

VENIZELLOS DEFENDS
ACTION OF GREEKS
WHILE IN SMYRNA

Declares That Reports of Greek Slaughter of Turks Are Untrue.

Paris, Nov. 8.—Premier Venizelos of Greece appeared before the supreme council today and defended the action of Greece in Smyrna, when it was first occupied by Greek troops. The defence was based upon points in the reports in the inter-allied commission, which report unfavorably to Greece.

Premier Venizelos charged that the Allied slaughter of Turks in Smyrna was incorrect. He complained that Greece had not been represented on the commission when the testimony was taken.

GREAT TIME TONIGHT WITH CARNIVAL AND AWARDING OF PRIZES

Victory Loan Doings Begin at 9 o'clock.

The Victory Loan carnival tonight, promises to outlast the one held at the time the Prince of Wales was a visitor here. The citizens, it is expected, will be out in force in fancy dress costumes.

At 9 o'clock tonight, the costumes will be judged just south of the Smallman and Ingram arch on Richmond street, while at 9:45 o'clock, the drawing for the $50 Victory Bond will be held at the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets.

If the owner of the winning pamphlet has already bought a bond, the prize will be increased to $100. An important announcement regarding next week's activities will also be made at this time.

The Macleods and the Macleods, the two sections of canvassers that are endeavoring to outdo each other in bond sales, are having a merry battle. The Macleods' total now stands at $38,700, while the Macleods' is $20,400, which leaves the latter $18,300 behind.

It is expected that today will see the largest sales yet, as far as private citizens are concerned, as all the salesmen are out to make every application as large as possible.

William Bartlett sold a $100 bond to a Russian who was of the visiting work on one of the new theatre buildings. He could not speak English, but when the clerk explained to him the nature of the sale, he dug down into his pocket and produced $10, which next minute he was on the job again.

Toronto Police Are Still Investigating the Leaside Murder.

U. S. GOVERNMENT AND MINERS IN LEGAL BATTLE TODAY OVER TEMPORARY INJUNCTION ISSUE

Scene of Main Action in Big Coal Strike Shifts to Indianapolis—Government Urges Fuel Economy, But Is Not Expected to Enforce Drastic Measures as Yet.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The scene of action in the soft coal strike controversy was shifted today to Indianapolis, where the Government and miners' representatives are meeting in the federal court to fight out their issues on the temporary injunction, restraining the strike leaders from further activity.

Although no statement concerning such a move was made, it was believed probable that Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, would seek another conference today with Attorney-General Palmer, in an effort to settle the strike prior to the opening of injunction proceedings in Indianapolis. Numerous conferences already have been held, but so far apparently they have been devoid of results.

Both factions in the strike dispute have held out tenaciously in their original declarations, the Government side repeatedly asserting that the injunction will not be dropped until the strike order has been recalled, and Labor leaders reiterating that the strike order will not be withdrawn until the injunction has been quashed.

The material side of the strike, as shown by available reports was not altered noticeably, both sides claiming gains. The Government continued its campaign for coal economy, but announced it had not been contemplated to reinforce such war-time measures as "lightless nights" and "heatless Mondays."

DECLARES LENINE'S GOLD IS FINANCING THE COAL STRIKE

St. Louis, Nov. 7.—That Lenin and Trotsky are financing the coal miners in their present strike was the charge made this afternoon by Thomas T. Brewster, chairman of the Coal Operators' Association, in a speech before the members of the American mining congress at a luncheon in the Planters' Hotel.

"We are in a position to know that the Russian soviet leaders are backing the coal miners and repelling the general in the United States," declared Mr. Brewster, shaking his fist for emphasis. "The United States must take steps to save our country and say 'they shall not pass.'"

Miners' Demands One Phase.
"The demands of the miners' union are but one phase of the situation. The coal strike is tied up with other national tendencies, and the ramifications are many. The time is past when we can view the trend of things in this country with mere academic interest. The time is here when the average man who values the institutions of his country and the civilization must take his stand and do his part to save these things."

Further arrests are being planned to save our country and say 'they shall not pass.'"

HUNDREDS SUSPECTED OF PLOTTING BOMB OUTRAGES, ARRESTED

Alleged Radicals Gathered in Net Spread by U. S. Authorities.

AWAIT DEPORTATION
Swift Raids Are Conducted in Many American Cities.

New York, Nov. 8.—More than 300 alleged radicals who are said to have plotted violent demonstrations through out the country today in commemoration of the second anniversary of the establishment of the Russian Soviet Government were in the hands of federal authorities this morning, awaiting deportation or such other action as may be ordered against them.

About 500 men and women suspected of having been implicated in the plot were seized late last night in a series of swift raids conducted in fourteen cities by federal agents who were promised more than 150 persons were taken in a raid in New York which was personally conducted by William J. Flynn, chief of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice. All save 52 were released after their civil re-establishment.

In the Chicago district, including Milwaukee and Gary, Ind., about 200 more were taken today, while in smaller groups ranging from 30 down to 3 were arrested in Detroit, Philadelphia, New York, Newark, N. J., Jackson, Mich., and five Connecticut cities—New Haven, Hartford, Ansonia, Waterbury and New Britain.

Federal agents generally declined to discuss the arrests further than to say they had been planned at Washington several weeks ago.

It was reported that in some cities the demonstrations were to include bomb pacing and the use of firearms.
