

HEROES TO GRAVE WITHOUT FITTING HONORS

Great War Veterans Stirred—Fund To Provide Ceremony Necessary.
WINNIPEG HAS ONE Longservice Man Has Strangers, Though Soldiers, As His Bearers.

Great War Veterans in London last night were greatly stirred because of the lack of military ceremony connected with the funeral of many of the men who fought side by side in the trenches with them, and whose deaths resulted in wounds and other casualties, after they returned home.

Particularly sad was the funeral of one returned man who died in a London military institution, and whose remains were taken to Mount Pleasant Cemetery yesterday morning. The only semblance of military honors was a lone union Jack covering the casket, which was conveyed to the cemetery by a civilian hearse. The only attendants, according to the pallbearers were themselves, the chaplain and the undertaker. Only two vehicles, the hearse and an auto to convey the pallbearers took part.

Although the deceased had given almost a score of years of his life in service to the empire, having 16 years' service in the Marines and a few years in the recent struggle in a civil war, not even the soldier's funeral rites were accorded him. He was laid to rest in the little plot where more than 10 other heroes who died in this city.

Fund Needed.—London should have a fund to pay the expenses of doing honor to these men," said one G.W.V.A. official, "Winnipeg has one. Some organization could do a great work by raising it by public subscription. A full military funeral with band, gun carriage and firing party could be provided for $120. The Government pays the other expenses of men who die in an institution. Fifteen of the comrades of our organization have passed away in the past two weeks. On week days the bandmen cannot afford to leave their work, as they have to provide for dependents, but on Sundays they have, on different occasions, turned out voluntarily."

It is expected that action will take place at the G. W. V. A. meeting on October 12, which may ultimately result in plans for the establishing of a soldiers' burial fund here.

The six G. W. V. A. members who acted as pallbearers at the funeral, although none of them knew the deceased prior to his death.

Look well to service when you buy a cream separator. That means more than anything else. That should include not only a good working and reliable machine, but the right sort of attention and interest on the part of the seller, not only at the time the machine is set up, but as long as you continue to use it. De Laval service is well known. You can depend upon it.

Value depends upon the amount and quality of service the separator gives you—what you get out of it. You get more value for your money when you buy a De Laval, because it will give you more and better service than any other separator.

NEW OFFICERS OF S. A. ARE INSTALLED

Impressive Ceremonies At the Citadel Last Night—Great Progress Is Expected.

Major and Mrs. Crichton were installed as divisional commanders of this district in the Salvation Army Citadel last evening before an overcrowded house. Young and old Salvationists took part in the ceremonies, which were of a very impressive nature. Col. McMillan, chief secretary of the Salvation Army, was present and delivered a speech of welcome that was only fitting to the major himself. He spoke on the work of the Salvation Army in Canada, where over 500 were working in the cause of Salvation. He then pointed out the chief country of the British Empire with the work of the Salvation Army. He took as examples Col. Chandler, former commander of this district, being appointed as principal of the training school in New York, Col. Rawling, former commander of this district being appointed as field secretary for the Canadian and British provinces. Mr. Morris as chief secretary for the western provinces.

"London is helping to its very utmost in Salvation Army work," said Col. McMillan. "Seven of our chief officers have been officers of this district, and I am proud to say that one of those is Col. Rawling."

Hard Workers.—Staff Captain Ritchie of the local command spoke a few words of welcome on behalf of the young people of the Salvation Army of London. "There are no harder working women in this district than those we have in London," said Captain Ritchie. "Success is sure to come to Major Crichton and his staff. They will help and pray for him and the work of the army."

Adjutant Wright then welcomed Major Crichton to the city on behalf of the officers of the district. He promised him the strongest support and would follow him to the very last. One of the officers from St. Thomas speaking on behalf of the soldiers of the district, promised the major all the support obtainable to help carry out the work of the Salvation Army.

Capt. Jones of the Walkerville Command was present, and in short address gave a hearty invitation to Major and Mrs. Crichton to come to Walkerville.

Mrs. (Col.) McMillan, in her address, spoke on the work the London Command has done in the past. She took for example the Bethesda Hospital and the Children's Hospital. She congratulated the London Command on having secured the services of such a worthy officer.

Col. Hammond of International headquarters, London, Eng., who is conducting special services here for a week or more, welcomed the officers and promised the command that it would be a huge success because Major Crichton and Mrs. Crichton were God's own, and asked them to co-operate with them.

Major and Mrs. Crichton then replied in a very fitting manner. Both promised that they would put their heart and soul in the work.

"We are going to try and make you see what God has shown us," said Major Crichton. "When God is with us we cannot but have success. Pray for the salvation of others, and help in every way that you possibly can. May God be with you all."

The services came to a close with everyone singing, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow."

BLAZE IN OFFICE.—The fire department made a run to the office of Silverman, Ltd., at 6:30 o'clock last evening and extinguished a blaze, which did little damage.

WM. ANDREWS CORRECT.—By error it was stated in a report of the proceedings at the assize court now in session at the courthouse that Harry Andrews was to stand trial at the December sessions on a charge of stealing liquor. The man whose case was postponed was not Harry Andrews but William Andrews.

HORSE STRUCK BY CAR.—After it had strayed from its owner, a horse, believed to have belonged to a Mr. Kernerman of 194 Waterloo street, wandered in front of a moving street car at the corner of Colborne and Dundas streets at 11 o'clock last night and was struck by a broken leg resulted. Not until an hour later, when its owner was said to have been found, was it shot according to a resident of the vicinity.

BIG WINGHAM FAIR.—WINGHAM, Sept. 30.—Wingham Fair opened today with promises of being the biggest exhibition here in years. Fruit and flower exhibits are displayed in the annexes. Exhibits are very large. A good racing program is offered tomorrow, and a large attendance is anticipated. Marches and fancy drills will be presented by the school children. The officers of the fair board are:

Honorary president, W. J. Greer; honorary vice-president, J. J. Moffatt; president, H. P. Perdue; first vice-president, I. J. Wright; second vice-president, R. S. Williams; secretary-treasurer, A. G. Smith.

Directors—W. J. Currie, H. Gilmore, F. Henry, R. E. Gillespie, V. E. Van Norman, C. G. Campbell, G. N. Underwood, A. G. Smith, W. R. Cruickshanks, J. A. Brandon, W. A. McEwen, J. A. McLean, W. G. Grey, J. Young, J. Millar, M. Proctor.

Auditors—J. A. McLean, Robt. Currie.

Wives of the officers are also members of the board.

New Apparel that meets the Demands of Autumn Days

Will the waistline be high or low, sleeves long or short, skirts wide or narrow? These are the questions on the eve of the autumn exhibits of New Fall Fashions, which are receiving most adequate reply in our fashion exhibits. It is to be a season of joyous splendor, with much social gaiety and great beauty in cloths. One notes a lowered waistline in frocks, the Redingote influence in suits, and the flare box coats and wraps, brings forward a new Russian blouse model. Softest of woollen fabrics, almost velvettlike in texture—combine with richest of fur peltries. The note of luxury predominates everywhere this season.
