Upon excellent authority it was said that the racing season in the east will commerce on April 1 at Pimlico, or three weeks earlier than usual. This is in order that the New York season may begin on April 15 and be free of opposition. So many horses are now in training in the vicinity of New York that an early season is considered imperative.

AM ON THE SPOT I own a stable of horses and am in the know when many a good thing will be cut loose here this winter. I want to put you next when I have them on tap. I don't want any money in advance, merely the winnings of a two-dollar commission on each horse I send you, and they may be one, or two, or even three, a week.

Send me $2 (two), American will accept my wires, and we can do business. George J. Hewson
