EASTERN RACING CLOSES WITH BOWIE MEETING

Short Grass, Borrow and The Finn Promise to Make a Notable Finale of Meeting.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 9.—The Southern Maryland Agricultural Association, which will conduct the final race meeting of the Jockey Club's eastern season at Bowie track from Nov. 14 to 20, inclusive, will offer patrons of the sport of kings as good distance racing as any other eastern track has afforded this year. Spur has gone into winter quarters. First Race has taken up his abode at John Madden's Hamburg Place stud, in Kentucky, and Boots and Stromboli are lame and out of it until next year, but twenty or more other performers of the first-class and a host of second-raters, all of them ready to run, are pointing for the Bowie meeting.

H. C. Hallenbeck will be represented by The Finn, champion of the Havre de Grace fall season; Harry Payne Whitney by Borrow, Emil Herz by the redoubtable Short Grass. Archibald Barkie by Holiday, G. A. Muller by Flittergold, R. Doctor by Sand March, K. McComber by Ed Crump and Hank O'Day, W. F. Orr by Leochares, Col. Ral Farr by Crimper, James Butler by Hugh Noon and Capra, Bub May by Bayberry Candle, John Powers by Harry Shaw and Joseph E. Widener by Chiclet.

Besides these top-notchers, there will be the second and third-raters, such as Eagle and Daddy's Chances, Gollers Boy, Robert Bradley, Poloma, L. J. Lillis, Woodrow Shores, Prince of Come, Thornhill, Gainer, Hauberk, Startling, Water Lady, Fannouse, Ventila, Marsa Henry, Rhine Maiden, Dove, and Xylon. The Finn will be Mr. Hallenbeck's only representative at Bowie, because reliable Blue Thistle fell lame at Laurel and has been put by until next year. But The Finn is a stable by himself. A horse of high speed and conspicuous ability as a weight-carrier. The Finn can travel far at top speed, and he is unconquerably game. Short Grass, his great rival at Havre de Grace, will find him a hard nut to crack.

But Short Grass himself is at the top of his form. The English stallion's mile and a quarter in 2:03 and a fraction, at Laurel, when he beat Borrow, was the banner performance of his career. Borrow, better than he was at any time thru the summer and autumn, is making time at Bowie, while the horses are racing at Pimlico, to the end that he may have his speed about him at Bowie, and he is sure to make trouble for the best, because he dearly loves deep going.

Holiday, a capital performer at Bowie last fall, and Flittergold, which won one of the best races there last spring, can hardly be expected to pick up such as Short Grass, Borrow and The Finn. Leochares and Marsa Henry, which heretofore have confined their efforts to sprinting, will find themselves in strange company when they tackle Short Grass and The Finn at one mile and a quarter, but their trainers believe them capable of holding their own. Leochares was never so good as he is just now, and Marsa Henry, a horse of perfect action and pronounced weight-carrying ability, has within a fortnight won at one mile in better time than 1:40. Among the lesser performers, Woodrow Shores, Xylon, Fannouse, Capra Poloma and Delos have given recent evidence of exceptional fitness, and William Mizell believes that Robert Bradley, a record at Havre de Grace, fell lame in Canada, shortly before he studied at Bowie, but no horse hereabouts is working more satisfactorily.

Xylon, an imported gray, in the stable of Jack Joyner, who is training for Joe E. Widener at Philadelphia, was a disappointment earlier in the season, but lately he has been showing under silks something of the speed he discovered in morning, and Joyner is confident he will redeem himself at Bowie.

HICK CONSTABLE WAS NOT AFRAID OF COBB

"Ty Cobb, with delightful assurance that the heavens fall, he's too important to the game to get hurt, has continued to play in New England after the close of the season. But the whole American League may be afraid to discipline Tyus there is a Connecticut constable who is not in awe of him. On Oct. 21 Ty was booked to play with an independent team in Hartford. It seems Cobb's team had forgotten to pay some bills or other, so a constable levied on the team and proceeded to carry them off despite Cobb's protests. Ty was to get $200 for his share and the receipts only amounted to $100.

That Son-in-Law of Pa's

Copyright, 1916, by Newspaper Feature Service.

DEAR CEDRIC IS WORKING AWFULLY HARD TO REDUCE YOUR HOUSEHOLD BILLS. PA'S BEEN LOOKING ABOUT FOR A CHEAP PLACE TO BUY PROVISIONS, AND TODAY HE FOUND A LITTLE MARKET WAY DOWN ON THE EAST SIDE WHERE——HE COULD SAVE 3¢ A DOZEN ON EGGS, AND 2¢ A POUND ON BUTTER, SO HE BOUGHT 12 DOZ. EGGS AND A 20 LB. TUB OF BUTTER.

—M-M-WELL, THAT'S A LITTLE SAVING ANYHOW! HAVE THEY DELIVERED THE STUFF YET?

—OH, THE MARKET DOESN'T DELIVER GOODS, PA, AND AS CEDRIC DIDN'T WANT HIS TAXI ALL LITTERED UP WITH EGGS AND BUTTER, HE——MADE ARRANGEMENTS FOR YOU TO CALL FOR THE STUFF TONIGHT.
