

Penitentiaries

Mr. Stanley Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): Mr. Speaker, there are not many hon. members left in the chamber who have not taken part in today's debate. Speaking for the listeners and the observers, the hon. member for Edmonton Centre (Mr. Paproski) and I would like to echo what has been said several times today, that this has been an excellent debate. We congratulate the hon. member who proposed the motion. We congratulate those who took part in the debate. We recognize that behind the excellence of this day's debate was the work and the report of the subcommittee. We extend to that subcommittee our congratulations.

Finally, the hon. member for Edmonton Centre and I say that we hope the Solicitor General (Mr. Blais) will pay attention to the motion and to what has been said today on both sides of the House.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): Order. It is my duty to inform the House that, pursuant to Standing Order 58(11), proceedings on the motion have expired.

It being five o'clock, this House stands adjourned until Monday at 2 p.m., pursuant to Standing Order 2(1).

At 5 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
