Local News.

Furness steamer Evangeline arrived this morning from London via Halifax.

Dominion steamer Lansdowne, Captain Bissett, arrived this morning from a cruise among the bay lighthouses.

No. 2 Co. 3rd Regt. C. A. will meet tonight at 7.30 for gun drill, and on Monday for return of clothing and receipt of pay.

The St. John City Rifle Club will hold a spoon match on the government range on Saturday afternoon. Match to start at two o'clock sharp.

Alexandra Section Temple of Honor meets in Union Hall, Main street, this evening at eight o'clock. Business of importance will be discussed.

The sale of English Blankets, which was started a week ago at M. R. A.'s, Ltd., will end tomorrow night. The bargain goods are all new and are offered at particularly low figures to introduce the whole new bedding supply.

Manitoba flour has declined wholesale about 65 cents from the high point, and Ontario flours about $1.10. At one time the difference in price between the two kinds of flour was only about 30 cents per barrel, but it is now about 75 cents.

The steamer Calvin Austin, Captain Pike, arrived this morning early from Boston direct with 230 passengers and a large freight. The steamer sailed for Eastport at noon today to return tomorrow. Steamer Penobscot of the same line arrived last night with 76 passengers, and sailed on her return trip this morning.

A Montreal despatch says:—An Intercolonial passenger train and the westbound Portland G. T. R. express were in collision this morning near St. Bruno. The accident was due to fog and slippery rails. One passenger was injured by broken glass. The damage to rolling stock was considerable.

Coastwise freights from St. John to New York are now good, but the return rates are lower than earlier in the season. This is due to the fact that under the conditions of buying coal during the last few years purchases are made and shipments made in the early summer, leaving much less than formerly to be brought down in the fall.

The Union Pacific has chartered the British passenger steamer Prince Arthur for service between New Orleans and Havana, the first sailing from New Orleans on Wednesday, Oct. 18, and weekly thereafter. A freight steamer will also leave New Orleans on Saturdays and Havana on Tuesdays. The Prince Arthur will accommodate 178 first-class passengers.—N. Y. Commercial.

Sergeant Ross has arrived home after visiting Montreal, Hamilton and Toronto. While at Toronto the sergeant took in the Toronto fair, which he describes as a magnificent celebration. He states that the most enjoyable feature in his opinion was the drill exhibition given by the sailors, under the leadership of Prince Louis. He states that there are two performances given daily by the sailors, and that thousands go to the fair every day. The sergeant was absent about ten days.

The Dominion government steamer Tyrian with deputy minister of public works A. Gobeil and family on board sailed this morning at 10 o'clock for Digby. From there the party will go to Cape Sable Island. The minister was very reticent about making any statement for publication. He had a private consultation in the customs house last evening with W. J. McCordick, superintendent of public works and E. T. P. Shewen, resident engineer. He will go to Yarmouth to meet Mr. Dodwell.

RUPTURE CURED

St. John citizens will learn with interest of the coming visit of Bernhard Lindman, the celebrated truss expert of Montreal

This eminent specialist will be at the Royal Hotel, St. John, from Sept. 11th to Sept. 15th, both dates inclusive, where he will treat all cases of rupture—No charge for examination or advice.

Read the following letter, which is only one of many hundreds:

MONTREAL, November 2nd, 1901.

Mr. B. Lindman,

Dear Sir:—In reply to your inquiry how I am getting on with your Truss, I am most happy to inform you that after wearing it steady over two years I found that I could do my work without any support and left the Truss off months ago. There is no sign of any rupture since.

Yours thankfully,
H. WILFRID TAYLOR.

THE W. C. T. U.

Provincial Convention Closed Last Night After Successful Meetings.

At yesterday afternoon's session of the W. C. T. U. convention, a petition was drawn up by a special committee, in favor of a compulsory school law in this province.

The plan for the amalgamation of the Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick conventions was discussed and handed over to a committee.

The following delegates were appointed to attend the Dominion convention:—Mrs. Lindow, St. Stephen; Mrs. Troy, Newcastle; Mrs. Ruddock, St. Martins; Mrs. S. D. Scott, St. John; Mrs. Weyman, Millstream.

Mrs. James McAvity of the North End read a very interesting and instructive paper on "hygiene and heredity."

In the evening Mrs. Katherine L. Stephenson lectured before a good sized audience. She spoke strongly against the liquor traffic.

The North End Y's were next presented with a banner for membership by Mrs. O. Lindow.

The new president, Mrs. Grey, of Fairville, was introduced to the meeting.

The Campbellton union received a banner for membership.

Mrs. Lindow, the retiring president, was presented with a beautiful bouquet of carnations.

The gathering then moved to the front of the hall, and joined in singing "God be with you till we meet again."

Mrs. Lindow then declared the convention closed.

INTERVIEW WITH MAYOR ON THE HARBOR WORKS

General Committee Called for Monday to Deal With Question of New Steamship Berth---His Worship Speaks of Difficulties in Way.

A meeting of the general committee of the common council is called for Monday next to consider the matter of building wharves on the west side.

Mayor White said this morning that if at all possible the work would be completed this winter.

"No one is more anxious than I am," said the mayor, "to see this work completed, and if the council can see its way clear to having the wharves and warehouses built in time for use during the coming season, I have no doubt the work will be done."

Summing up the present situation he said it was simply this:

"G. S. Mayes has been awarded the contract, I understand, but before he can proceed with the work it will be necessary to have the privy council ratify the agreement. That may be in a day or two or maybe longer. It is now the 8th of September and time the work was commenced. Well, after he has been assured of the contract a dredge must be brought here by Mr. Mayes, and he has thirty days from the time the contract is signed, in which to start the work. He could take the whole thirty days if he wished.

"Then, supposing that tenders were called for for the building of the wharf, and Mr. Mayes' tender should not be the lowest, and therefore might not be accepted, he could, if he so wished, take a year in which to do the dredging.

"I have been informed by some people who should know that the timber at present in the harbor is not of the requisite dimensions, and furthermore that some of it has been out of water for four years. As I understand it, new birch timber should be used.

"However, suppose we started the work this fall, it is in a bad time of year for work of this kind. The days are getting shorter, the cold weather is coming, storms might delay the work in various ways, and it is improbable that under the most favorable circumstances the work could be completed before some time in February. It is a question in my mind whether the use of that one berth(if it could be built) would repay the city for the extra cost which would be almost sure to result, if the work was undertaken this year.

"I don't wish it to be thought that I want this work to lay over until spring. I think that, with the council, I have done everything I could to get this work done. We have been urging upon the government the need of it for some time and it is no fault of ours that it has been left so late, but there is no use going into these things blindfold, there are difficulties in the way and they have to be met.

"However, I have called a meeting of the general committee for Monday and I hope Mr. Mayes will be in the city then so that we can discuss the matter thoroughly."

W. E. STAVERT HAS RESIGNED

Manager of Bank of New Brunswick to Join the Bank of Montreal.

W. E. Stavert has resigned his position as general manager of the Bank of New Brunswick to fill an important office in the Bank of Montreal, and his resignation has been accepted by the former institution.

He began banking life with his father in the Bank of Summerside, which was absorbed into the Bank of New Brunswick, when he became its general manager. In 1881 he was in the Royal Bank at Halifax, but in the same year joined the Bank of Nova Scotia, a branch of which he opened in Jamaica in 1889, and in Newfoundland in 1894. In 1898 he was sent to Boston to open a branch there and was appointed general manager of the Bank of New Brunswick in 1901.

He was selected curator by the Bankers' Association when the Bank of Yarmouth suspended payment, and ten years ago the provincial government appointed him one of a commission to draft a new assessment act for the province.

The Bank of Montreal people make it a general rule to advance men in their own service and rarely go outside for men. Mr. Stavert's appointment is clear evidence of their recognition of his ability and wide experience.

ST. JOHN LADIES ARE OFFICERS

Maritime Golf Club Elections at Halifax This Morning---Mrs. Alward is President.

ABOUT WANT ADS.

And the Digby Man Who Is Collecting a Gallery of Cooks.

The Star last evening, replying to an article in the Times, on the subject of Want ads., says that the man who advertised in the Star on Aug. 24th for a picture and got one within a few hours is still running the advertisement and paying for it.

So also, no doubt, is the proprietor of a Digby hotel, who has had the following advertisement among the Star Want ads. since last June, and still running:

"COOK WANTED—A good cook by the first of July. Female preferred. Apply to C. A. Jordan, Dufferin Hotel, Digby."

But what about results? The picture seeker is said by the Star to be collecting a gallery of this particular picture. Is the Digby man after a gallery of cooks?

"Star ads." says the Star, "are all bona fide, all paid for, and yield results."

Times Want Ads. are inserted free for Times subscribers.

MONSIGNOR SBARRETTI

Papal Delegate Reached St. John Last Night---He is Pleased With New Brunswick.

Monsignor Sbarretti, papal delegate to Canada, his secretary, Rev. Dr. Sinnott, and Mgr. Richard arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and were escorted to the palace by Rev. A. W. Meahan.

Through some misunderstanding the citizens of Fredericton expected the delegate to arrive in the celestial city last evening, but since Mgr. Sbarretti's last visit to St. John the clergymen of this city expected him to arrive last evening, as was the case. This morning the papal delegate and his secretary left on the boat for Fredericton.

The papal delegate is at present touring throughout New Brunswick, visiting the different parishes, and so far has taken in the northern and eastern counties of this province. He is greatly taken up with the growth and beauty of the different counties, and with the fertility of the New Brunswick soil.

During the papal delegate's tour St. Joseph's University, the Catholic university of this province, was visited, and Mgr. Sbaretti was greatly pleased with its manner of education and surprised at the university's grand science equipment.

From Fredericton the delegate will go to St. Basil, arriving there on Saturday. During Saturday and Sunday he and his secretary will be the guests of Rev. Fr. Dugal, V. G.

THE WATER SUPPLY

The Question of Sewerage Emptied Into Loch Lomond.

Mayor White was asked this morning regarding a rumor that the sewerage of the Ben Lomond house, situated near the shore of Loch Lomond (from which the city will derive its water supply) empties into the lake and the water is polluted thereby. It had also been stated that the city had offered Mr. Barker, the proprietor, $1000 if he would have the cesspool diverted to some other place.

The mayor said the latter statement was entirely unfounded. The city had made no offer whatever, and in regard to the former statement he said the city would purchase the land between Barker's and the lake and that Mr. Barker would then be compelled to have his sewerage empty elsewhere.

Concerning this matter it has been stated that it is amply within the power of the provincial board of health to step in and prevent any pollution of water used as a source of supply by the people.

ANOTHER STENOGHAPHER

Miss Jessie Lawson has been selected by the situation department of the Currie Business University, Ltd., to fill the position of stenographer for the Lake of The Woods Milling Co., here.

The situation department of the Currie Business University, Ltd., is considered the most energetic employment bureau east of Boston.

THE MAH-PU BOOKLET

A handsome booklet, the Story of the Mah-Pu Mineral Springs, is now in the hands of the printer, E. J. Armstrong, and will soon be issued. The company's exhibit of their products will be in all the drug store windows to-morrow. The company will begin next week the manufacture of ginger ale and aerated waters, for which they have installed a $15,000 plant. The demand for the medicinal waters has exceeded all expectations.
