LARGE AUDIENCE ENJOYS COMEDY BY LOCAL PLAYERS—OPERA HOUSE

Presentation of "Mrs. Dot," a Sparkling Comedy, Wins Enthusiastic Applause—Patriotic Object

A select, very large enthusiastic audience greeted the presentation of "Mrs. Dot," a comedy by W. Somerset Maughan, in the Opera House last evening. It was presented under the auspices of DeMonts Chapter, I. O. D. E., and the proceeds are to be donated for the equipment of ten beds in a hospital in Cliveden for wounded Canadian soldiers. The amateur participants acted their respective parts in a creditable manner. The slight trace of nervousness noticeable during the first act disappeared as the play progressed, and it went with a swing that spoke well for the ability of the leading characters.
The local stage may have seen a more gorgeous amateur production, but the wardrobe in last evening's play was to say the least, dastlingly beautiful. The play was a sparkling comedy, replete with funny situations and interspersed with an abundance of witty dialogue.
That the cast scored a decided hit was evident from the enthusiastic applause tendered them.

The auditorium was artistically decorated with the flags of the Allies, and the patriotic musical programme rendered by the orchestra combined in making the surrounding details thoroughly in accord with the entertainment.

Previous to the starting of the play the audience were given a pleasant surprise as the curtain slowly rose, and a striking tableau representing Britain and her Allies was revealed. The group of young ladies taking part were costumed in appropriate colors and the scene brought forth long and repeated applause from the appreciative audience.

The cast of characters in the play were—

Newfoundland, Miss Portia Mackenzie Guard of Men in Khaki.
Mrs. Worthley, Mrs. W. A. Knight Freddie Perkins, her nephew and secretary
Miss Eliza McGregor, her aunt.
Mrs. L. B. Knight
Gerald Hastings, Mrs. J. J. McKaskill
James Blenkinsop, F. C. Macneil Ladly Selinger, Mrs. J. J. McKaskill Nellie, her daughter Mason, Mrs. Worthley's maid.
Mr. Wright, a tailor.
Miss Kathleen Sturdee
Mr. Rixon (Gerald's solicitor).
Charles Gerald's servant, Ernest March George (Blenkinsop's man).
A maid at Mrs. Worthley's, Miss Bileard Those who took part in the tableau
were—

Britannia, Mrs. Hugh Mackay
France, Miss Lois Grimmer Russia, Miss Katherine McAuliffe Belgium, Miss Mary MacLaren Japan, Miss Mary Schofield Canada, Miss Dorothy Purdy Australia, Miss Katherine Trueman India, Miss Kathleen Sturdee
New Zealand, Miss Frances Kerr South Africa, Mrs. John Belyea Egypt, Miss Kathleen Sturdee
Ireland, Miss Bridges

In the leading role Mrs. Compton completely captivated her audience by the ease and grace with which she acted her part, and by her clever acting. She possessed a speaking voice of charm and distinctness. As Mrs. Dot she gave a clever interpretation and won much well merited applause.

Mr. Ellis was called upon to play a difficult role, and accomplished his task with ease. Mr. McKaskill gave a clever performance. In propelling the comedy in his role he won much hearty laughter and appreciation. Miss Kathleen Sturdee in her role of the American girl, won her audience by her capable rendering. She was exceptionally good in her love scene. Shirley Peters also acted his part well. Mrs. J. J. McKaskill added to the laurels which she has so often won on the local stage, and gave a clever interpretation. Mrs. L. B. Knight did much with the comparatively little she had to do. Ernest March, Guy Merritt, G. M. Cleveland, Bayard Coster, Miss Kathleen Sturdee and Miss Bileyard contributed in making the production a success.

The play will be repeated this even-

THE WAY OUT.

Change of Food Brought Success and Happiness.

An ambitious but delicate girl, after failing to go through school on account of nervousness and hysteria, found in Grape-Nuts the only thing that seemed to build her up and furnish her the peace of health.

"From infancy," she says, "I have not been strong. Being ambitious to learn at any cost I finally got to the High School but soon had to abandon my studies on account of nervous prostration and hysteria.

"My food did not agree with me, and I grew thin and dependent. I could not enjoy the simplest social affair for I suffered constantly from nervousness in spite of all sorts of medicines.

"This wretched condition continued until I became interested in the letters of those who had cases like mine and who were being helped by eating Grape-Nuts.

"I had little faith, but procured a pkg-and after the first dish I experienced a peculiar satisfied feeling that I had never gained from any ordinary food. I slept and rested better that night and in a few days began to grow stronger.

"In a few weeks, to my great joy, the headaches and nervousness left me and life became bright and hopeful.
I resumed my studies and later taught will with much success.

"I am now the mistress of a happy home, and the old weakness has never returned."

ing and tomorrow afternoon and will

SPECIAL MATINEE OF "MRS. DOT" TOMORROW

Owing to the heavy demand for tickets for the evening performance of the comedy, "Mrs. Dot" at the Opera House, under the auspices of De Monts Chapter, I. O. D. E., and the fact that so many people were unable to secure desirable seats, the management has been obliged to arrange for a special matinee tomorrow at 2.30. The production will be repeated in its entirety, with the full cast and the patriotic tableau which precedes the play. The proceeds will go to the fund for patriotic purposes. There are still a few good seats left in the balcony section for tonight's performance.

AN INTERESTING PROGRAMME AT LYRIC

The offering at the Lyric of Lucille Savoy, known far and wide for the singing Venus, is unique, spectacular and pleasing. It consists of art posing and pictures from life artistically presented.
The representation of Joan of Arc is also well done and the other pictures, such as the living blues, pastels, and roses, are artistic, interesting and very pleasing.

Interest is added to the programme by the appearance of Frank Hines, late of the Hanover Company, who submits some talking songs, and gives an interesting talk on the making of moving pictures.

The film programme is also good. A Lucky Disappointment, by the Reliance Company, brings a dashing western drama, and the Beauty Company appear in an amusing sketch, Sude's New Suit.

Love and Haight, in original and Egyptian dances, with Bowen and Bowen, comedians, are booked for the first part of next week.

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

If Feverish, Bilious, Constipated, Give Fruit Laxative at Once.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child.
See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign of bile on the stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of coughs, breathless, sleepless, restless, eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup" (Figs), and in a few hours all the foul waste of the bowels and you have a healthy and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can't help but give it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little fig-syrup today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 60-cent bottle of "California Fig Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig-syrup.

"INTELLECTUAL SUPPORT"

Westminster Gazette Gives Semi-Official Thanks to United States

London, April 9.—The Westminster Gazette, which is in very close touch with the government, draws particular attention to the fact that the American note in reply to the British Order-in-Council, which reads as follows:

"The United States takes for granted that the approach of American merchantmen to neutral ports situated upon the long line of coast affected by the Order-in-Council will not be interfered with when it is known that they do not carry goods which are contraband of war, or goods destined to or proceeding from ports within the belligerent territory affected."

Commenting upon this statement The Gazette says:

"It is this passage which seems to contain the substance of the American communication, and which interprets exactly the intentions of the British and the Allied governments."

Continuing the newspaper rebukes those Englishmen who think the American government should "testify to the world against the violation of Belgium, infractions of the Hague conventions and other exhibitions of German frightful-ness," and brings its article to an end with these words:

"The allied cause in Europe owes an immense debt to the moral and intellectual support it has had from vast numbers of the American people who see in-distinctly what is at stake in this conflict. In no neutral country has the Allied cause been more warmly espoused or more forcibly presented by men of light and learning. Let us always be grateful for that, and refrain from criticising a government which has all manner of difficulties that cannot be rightly appreciated in this country."

When polished furniture gets dirty or slightly scratched a very good remedy is to wash it down briskly with very warm strong soda water, dry thoroughly then rub it well with equal parts of linseed oil and turpentine, previously well mixed. Allow it to soak in, polish it well the next day with soft, dry cloths, and you will find it restored to original beauty.

WHY GERMAN'S EXPELLED PINCHOT FROM BELGIUM

Relationship by Marriage to Sir Alan Johnstone Primary Cause

The Hague, April 9.—Both Henry Van Dyke, and Clifford Pinchot, attached to the American Legation, have been asked to leave the country to keep the matter of Mr. Pinchot's expulsion from Belgium from the Germans from public view.

Mr. Pinchot, however, on learning that the incident had been published, gave the Associated Press the following statement:

"Some time ago I was asked by Herbert C. Hoover to become a member of the commission for relief in Belgium and to take charge of the feeding of the French in the invaded provinces north of the German lines. After going twice to the commission, the arrangements finally were completed and guarantees given to the commission by the German government that the American commission's food would not be taken.

"I came to The Hague and reported immediately to Dr. Van Dyke, to whose legation I was attached by orders from Washington, with the specific duty of representing the commission of relief in feeding the civil population in Northeastern France within the German lines."

"Dr. Van Dyke procured from the German legation at The Hague the necessary papers for meeting the commission on March 30 I went with my wife in a commission automobile and was accompanied by a Brussels representative of the commission to the Belgian frontier, where my diplomatic and commission papers were examined. After three hours delay we were sent under an armed escort to Antwerp.

"The next morning orders came from the German government, General von Bissing, through the head of the Pass Office at Antwerp, that we were to leave Belgium without delay. No reason was assigned for the action.

"Before leaving, however, I received a letter from the American minister at Brussels, Brand Whitlock, saying that the reason given him by General von Bissing for our expulsion was my relationship to the British minister at The Hague, Sir Alan Johnstone, who married my sister, and the fact that I had stayed with him at The Hague on my way to Belgium. Accordingly, we returned to Holland on March 31 and since then have been staying with the American minister at The Hague, awaiting instructions from Washington."

"In entering and leaving Belgium Mrs. Pinchot and I were searched by the German military authorities."

Always Ready.

It is quite true that Admiral Beatty was on the skating rink in Edinburgh on the Saturday before his naval victory till about four o'clock in the afternoon.
In less than twenty-four hours afterwards he was on his flagship, the Lion, in the middle of the North Sea pounding the would-be baby-killing expedition.
That he managed to get aboard and out to sea so quickly—with decks cleared for action—is a wonderfully realistic proof of how well the navy deserves the motto, "Beatty, are ready?"

Handkerchiefs should be steeped in cold water to which a little salt has been added, before being washed.
