CONGREGATION

Many Attend Function Conducted in the New Memorial Hall

Last evening's program in St. David's church week of special services in connection with the opening of the new memorial hall, was a congregational reunion. The spacious new auditorium is well suited for such a purpose, and the congregation showed its appreciation by their presence.

They were received by Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Miller and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brittain. In his opening remarks, Mr. Miller emphasized the improvement of such catherings and the portance of such gatherings, and the necessity of the church membership being well acquainted. He stated that many visitors from the city and outside were daily visiting the hall, and one and all expressed delight at its appearance and appointments. One visitor had remarked, he said that St. David's was not merely church, but an institution. The musical program was participated in by Mrs. J. M. Barnes and Mrs. I. F. Archibald, who played a piano duet with their usual technique and interpretation. Mrs. Blake Ferris delighted with a solo in her attractive manner. Mrs. Hugh Miller followed in
