DELANEY'S BEST CHANCE RESTS ON MAKING AN EARLY ATTACK

BOXER AGAINST FIGHTER, SAYS GOTHAM WRITER

Canadian Should Get Jump on Opponent Early in Bout—Both Ready

NEW YORK, July 13—Apropos of the Berlenbach-Delaney uprising at Ebbets Field Thursday night, Harry Cross in the Herald-Tribune, says that the situation simmers down to Berlenbach's left, on the one hand, and Delaney's right, on the other.

There will be numerous other blows, obviously, aside from these two particular weapons, but it will undoubtedly be Paul's left or Jack's right which will distribute the sleep potions, if any are distributed.

BOXER VERSUS FIGHTER

If each were permitted to go ahead and fight his own particular fight unmolested the outcome would be a real puzzle. But that will not happen. Defense is going to upset the best laid plan of attack of one or the other. The contestant who is going to prevent the other fellow from boxing in his favorite method is going to have the advantage. The one who can first "take the play" away from the other will be on top.

It will be the boxer against the fighter. And in the case of a boxer who can also hit hard, as Delaney can, there should be a point in his favor. With his advantage in speed, Delaney should be able to get a decided jump on the champion early in the bout.

Over a long route the style of Berlenbach would be a decided advantage. But in this era of bouts of a limited duration, concentrated action is essential. Dempsey is the best example of synthesizing tremendous action in the first few rounds.

Delaney's best chance rests in making his big attack early. And if that fails Berlenbach's stamina will outlast the challenger's.

BOTH ARE READY

NEW YORK, July 13—Paul Berlenbach and Jack Delaney are ready for their fifteen round combat Thursday night. From now until the time Berlenbach parts the ropes to risk his crown both men will work only enough to retain the perfect condition they have gained by weeks of effort.—Berlenbach at his camp in Summit, N. J., and Delaney in several camps stretched from the wooded shores of Lake Winnepesaukee, in New Hampshire to the warm sands of Connecticut beaches.

The challenger appears at this time to have a slight edge in the predictions but it is probable that Berlenbach's great following will bring the wagering down to even money by ringtime. They have fought twice before, Delaney winning the first contest by a knockout in four rounds and Berlenbach the second by a decision in 15 rounds.

The Delaney supporters predict that the French-Canadian again will find his opponent's vulnerable spot and early in the fight. The fourth round is widely regarded as Delaney's already, for once he stopped Berlenbach in that frame and the second battle he knocked him down. Berlenbach's following asserts that the champion's improved style will forstall any such attacks as he has experienced before and that his aggressiveness and ability to stand punishment will give him the decision if he fails to knock out his opponent.

TENNIS TOURNEY AT FAIR VALE CLUB

Play Opens in Ladies' and Men's Singles; Some Good Contests

Some excellent tennis was seen last evening on the Fair Vale courts, when the members of the outing association there started one of their club tournaments. Three contests in the men's singles and one in the ladies' singles were run off before a large gallery.

One of the most interesting contests of the evening was that between George Stubbs and George Power, which resulted in a victory for the latter after three sets had been played. The last set was a ding-dong struggle from start to finish, the players alternately capturing game by game until four-all was reached. It was then that Power, who is one of the younger members in the senior lists, and who has been showing excellent form this season, forged ahead and captured the last two games, the set and the match. Play will be continued this evening.

The scores last night were:

Ladies' Singles

Miss J. Ross defeated Miss Emily Maxwell, 7—5, 4—6, 6—3.

Men's Singles

Geo. Power defeated Geo. Stubbs, 6—0; 4—6, 6—4.

G. A. Machum defeated J. Nickerson, 6—1, 6—2.

Ray Hansen defeated K. Storey, 6—2, 6—1.

PAAVO NURMI STILL CHAMPION MILER

Retains World Crown by Defeating Edwin Wide, Swedish Champion

STOCKHOLM, July 13 — Paavo Nurmi, Finnish runner, retained his crown yesterday as the world's champion miler. He defeated the Swedish champion, Edwin Wide, in four minutes 11 seconds. Wilde's time was two seconds slower.

In the 6,000 metres relay race the team headed by Nurmi set a new record of 16 minutes 26 seconds.

These Players May Be Seen In Action Here

Manager McKechnie of the Pittsburg Pirates, is here shown with four of his star infielders (in the four corners); two of his pitching staff, "Specs" Meadows and Aldridge, and Max Carey, his veteran outfielder who has formed the habit of leading the National League in base stealing. "Pie" Traynor, the star third sacker of the team, is a nephew of "Steve" Mathews, of this city. Traynor's father was here on a visit a few days ago. Negotiations are under way to bring the Pirates here this fall for a series with another big league team.

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN J. DUNLOP

"THE bigger they are, the harder they fall" is a pretty well-tested axiom in the field of sport and it ranks with that other famous one "They never come back." Sometimes, they do come back but not very often. A few short months ago, a young man came down to Nova Scotia, passed through this town, and was pointed out on all sides as "Mickey" Walker, champion welterweight of the world. Today, you hardly hear his name mentioned. Walker has fallen hard from the seats of the mighty, his latest being a technical knockout in the eighth round at the hands of Willie Harmon. Following so close on his defeat and loss of title to Pete Latzo, the fans have about consigned "Mickey" to the boxing ash heap. In his palmy days, "Mickey" was a favorite champion but now that he is down and out, the boys who gave him the cheer will now be ready with the rass. "Mickey" is liable to wonder if his decision to hook up with Jack Kearns, Dempsey's perfumed ex-manager, has done him any good. It can hardly be said that Kearns brought him much luck. Mickey's toboggan slide seems to have started last Christmas when he asked for considerable jack to perform for the orphan fund and the Commission promptly handed him a financial kayo when it banned the bout with Tommy Milligan, Scotch welter, in reply to Walker.

"BOBBY" JONES has about reached the pinnacle of golf perfection. He holds the British and United States open titles as well as the American amateur. No golfer in the history of the world has ever done that before. A truly marvelous performance and one that will last as long as sport exists.

THE annual meeting of the M. P. B. at Amherst next month is not expected to be one of those pink tea affairs, if we judge rumors and reports hereabouts correctly. In fact, the M. P. B, annuals have come to stand for wordy battles and all kinds of resolutions with the delegates getting exceedingly hot under the collar. It is not our own term but we have heard them likened unto "bear gardens." Possibly, that is not fair. It is rumored here that the amateur standing of several local ball players will be called in question. No names are mentioned but the material for the fireworks is said to be ready to light and that the explosion to follow will have the effect of a sensation. Whether this is pure talk or that there is something substantial behind it remains to be seen. That is what we hear and we pass it along for what it is worth. It would not be a bad idea for every local club affiliated with the M. P. B. to complete arrangements for representation at this Amherst meeting. It is believed that some kind of a resolution favoring sport autonomy for each of the provinces will be presented and this alone should be sufficient cause to have each club place itself formally on record.

ASSUMPTION WINS SOFT BALL LEAGUE

West Side Kirk Goes Down to Defeat in Heavy Hitting Game

The Assumption girls' soft ball team won the championship of the City League when they defeated the West Side Kirk outfit, by a score of 31 to 27, in the second and deciding game of the three-game series last night in the West Side. The game was loosely played. Heavy hitting and many errors were indulged in by both teams. A feature of the game was the hitting of Edna Ward, of the Assumption aggregation. Miss Ward collected four homers and a two base hit.

The Assumption team had two big innings, the sixth and the seventh. In the sixth, the team scored 10 runs, and in the seventh frame they drove 11 tallies across the plate. The Presbyterians scored 12 runs in the fourth session.

This game brought the City League to a close. There is a possibility of a West Side girls' softball league being formed to finish out the season.

For other sport news see page 8.

Games Tonight

THERE will be five baseball games played in various parts of the city this evening, and the fans will have a chance to pick and choose.

In the City League, St. Roses will play with the St. Johns on the East End grounds.

A good game is expected on the South End grounds when the Royals and Crescents meet in a league fixture.

A fast game is looked for on St. Peter's Park when the St. Peters and Alerts clash in the Independent League.

In the Intermediate League two games are scheduled, the Y. M. C. I. playing with the Glenwoods on the North End grounds, and the Beavers hooking up with the Imperials on the West Side diamond.

ENGLISH TEAM WINS

WINDSOR, Ont., July 13—The touring English soccer team met a team representing Essex county here last night, and won easily, 5 to 2. From the outset the visitors showed themselves masters of every angle of the game, and at no time were they threatened by the locals.

NELSON NOT GOING AWAY, IS REPORT

Tommy Campbell, manager of the Saint Johns, in conversation with The Telegraph-Journal last night, said: "Earl Nelson who, it is reported, will leave for New York shortly to join the Red Caps baseball outfit, informed me that he had no intention of leaving the city for that purpose. Nelson has personally told me that he will remain here with the Saint Johns and is not considering going away to play baseball."

Rosenburg and Taylor Signed

CHICAGO, July 13 — Promoter Jim Mullin announced last night he had closed negotiations for a bantamweight championship bout between Charley Phil Rosenburg, title-holder, and Bud Taylor, Terre Haute, challenger, to be decided here, probably on August 21.

TEAMS STAGE CLOSE GAMES

St. Johns and St. Roses win; Martellos and Nationals Tie

Three close and exciting games were played in the amateur leagues last evening, when the Saint Johns trimmed the Water Department in a ten inning contest by a score of 6 to 5, and the St. Roses bested the Trojans by 9 to 8 in City league fixtures, and the Martellos and Nationals played an eight inning tie in the South End league.

The league game between the Saint Johns and the Water Department was filled with exciting situations from the start. The Saints drove four runs home in a big eighth-inning rally and tied the score at five runs each. The ninth stanza went by scoreless for both teams but the Saint Johns gathered in one lone tally in their half of the tenth session and took the game by a 6 to 5 score.

Aubrey Snodgrass, Water Works' first baseman, was banished from the game in the eighth inning by Umpire Finnamore for talking back. His place was taken by O'Connor.

The opposing twirlers were in rare form last night. Ira Hannah hurled for the Watermen and held the Saint Johns to eight bingles. Lloyd Stirling pitched for the Saints and confined the Water Department to seven hits.

EAST END GAME.

The St. Roses drove four runs home in the ninth inning of their engagement with the Trojans and took the game by a 9 to 8 score. Up to the time McEachern, who hurled for the orange and black was hit on his pitching arm by one of Murphy's curves in the eighth inning, the game was a pitchers' duel with Murphy turning in the better performance.

SOUTH END GAME

ON THE South End last night the Martellos and Nationals fought eight innings to an 8 to 8 tie score in the most exciting game seen on the South End diamond this season.

The game was called by the umpires at the end of the seventh inning on account of darkness, but both teams objected and play was resumed. Neither team succeeded in breaking the deadlock in the eighth stanza, however.

Dugay and Watters started the twirling for the Martellos and allowed the Nationals 14 hits. Leary and Curren took turns in hurling for the Nationals and were touched up, between them, for 16 bingles.

Leary took up the pitching burden for the Nationals in the third frame and held the Martellos to one run during the remainder of the game.

GREAT FUTURE PREDICTED FOR JOE WRIGHT, JR.

Son of Famous Coach Has Won Four Victories in as Many Starts

PHILADELPHIA, July 13 — Four sculling victories is as many starts this season have caused rowing men to pay more than usual attention to Joe Wright, Jr., son of Joe Wright, former Argonaut sculler and sweep oarsman, who coached the University of Pennsylvania crews for nine years and is now in charge of the Penn Athletic Club crews.

Veteran rowing enthusiasts along the Schuylkill all agree that young Wright is the coming sculler in America. They look for him to win the association singles in the national championship regatta here next month and then make a strong bid for the championship singles against Walter M. Hoover, the present national titleholder; W. E. Garrett Gilmore, Russell Codman and any other senior scullers who happen to come here in August.

Young Wright started his sculling winning streak in the Schuylkill Navy Day regatta, when he won in junior and intermediate singles. In the People's Day regatta he ran the string up to four by taking the senior quarter-mile dash and association senior singles.

The former Toronto lad, who weighs 184 pounds, is also a football and hockey star, as well as being one of the best sweep oarsmen in his dad's senior eight-oared shell. He rows No. 6 and pulls a powerful blade.

It is significant that young Wright was selected to pose for the $25,000 memorial statue to be dedicated to the late Edward Hanlan, former amateur sculling champion of the world. It was just 50 years ago that Hanlan won the world's title in the Centennial regatta on the Schuylkill. The testimonial will be unveiled in Toronto next September, overlooking Toronto Bay, where the famed Hanlan did much of his sculling.

BISLEY AGGREGATE WON BY CANADIAN

Lt. Burke of Ottawa, Captures Clement I. Smith Aggregate, Following Shootoff

BISLEY CAMP, July 12—Lieut. Desmond Burke, of Ottawa, King's prize winner two years ago, won the Clement I. Smith aggregate after a shoot-off this evening with Sergt. K. R. McGregor, also of Ottawa, and Private H. O. Henry, late of St. Bee's Training Corps, and now of the Northumberland Regiment.

The three had tied for first place with scores of 118. The Clement I. Smith challenge cup goes to the competitor whose highest scores in the Donegall, or Qualifier, and Conan Doyle matches, make up the highest aggregates.

Lieut. Burke earlier today was in the shoot-off with five others for the Donegall Cup, but he placed sixth.

The leading Canadians in the Daily Telegraph Service Rifle Match, ten shots at 600 yards, today's feature, were Gunner H. Collings, Esquimalt, B.
