POWDER PUFFS BANNED IN CHICPEE BARBER SHOPS
Chicopee, Oct. 26.—The powder puff, used in Chicopee barber shops for many years, has been banned by the Board of Health. The board has discovered that a rule against the use of powder puffs has existed for a long time, but has not been enforced. Posters were issued by the Board of Health prohibiting the use of sponges also.
Harry Gardner of Halifax was yesterday found guilty of manslaughter in connection with the death of Gertrude Bonar, a little girl who was run over by a car driven by Gardner.

UNKNOWN AUTHORS SUBJECT AT CLUB

Anonymous Writers was the subject of the very interesting programme at the meeting of the Eclectic Club held last night at the residence of Murray MacLaren, C. M. G., M. P., M. D., and Mrs. MacLaren, in Coburg street. There was an unusually large attendance of members and many visitors were present also. Mrs. Richard Hooper had charge of the programme and in her introductory paper she referred to the multitudinous number of anonymous writers and of the fact that anonymity had been used as a shield by writers from the earliest times. She referred to the book on anonymous British writers which had been compiled by several authors and in which it was stated that there were 27,000 British writers whose records the authors had looked up.
Mrs. Silas Alward, in her paper, told of what would be done under the cloak of anonymity, and how it brought a spirit of independence and freedom. Mrs. Corlanti Robinson read the chapter from "The Gentleman With a Duster" about Lloyd George, which was an example of the work of a modern anonymous writer. Rev. Canon H. A. Armstrong's paper was a study of
