

MC235 POOR DOCUMENT

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS OF THE WEEK IN ST. JOHN

There remain but two weeks before Lent sets in, and they will be busy ones in society, as numerous entertainments are planned to take place within that time. Already, in anticipation of the quiet days to come, the socials have begun. This week Mr. and Mrs. John McAvity left for a lengthy stay in Europe, Mr. Simeon Jones was also a passenger on the Empress of Ireland. He will visit his father, Mr. Simeon Jones, who is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Wilson, in London. Then, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Mackay left this week for a two months' trip to the south-west states. This begins the travel which depicts the social ranks, until the guests which usually follow the Easter festival, sends forth the call that turns the wanderers' footsteps homeward.

The assembly hall at Keith's theatre on Thursday evening was a delightful society function. As the invitation list comprised the same guests on each occasion, it follows that about the same people were present as on the two former evenings. Anticipation might be made of Miss Mary Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Jones, who made her debut at this party. She was charmingly attractive, gowned in spotted white chiffon over satin, with silver trimmings and having little bouquets of tiny pink roses catching here and there the flimsy drapery. Miss Barnaby also carried a magnificent bouquet of Parma violets in the centre of which was a single pink rose. The supper table was arranged with exquisite taste, the color scheme being green and white. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Jones, gowned in black crepe de chine with black lace trimmings; Mrs. Douglas-Harris, in black lace over white satin having touches of blue on the bodice; Mrs. Harold Schofield, white lace over white satin, with silver trimmings; and Mrs. Walter Foster, who wore white lace over white satin with bands of emerald trimming. A noticeable feature at the hall was the profusion of flowers worn by the guests.

On Tuesday Mrs. Royden Thomson was hostess at an enjoyable bridge of ten tables. The prize winners were Mrs. Harold C. Schofield, Mrs. del. Carrington, Mrs. J. V. Anglin and Mrs. D. P. Chisholm. Mrs. Thomson, who received her guests in the drawing room, was beautifully gowned in an embroidered green chiffon, trimmed with bands of maroon fur; ornaments, diamonds. Assisting with refreshments were Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Percy Thomson, Mrs. Harold Schofield, Mrs. F. Caverhill Jones, Mrs. Simeon Jones, Miss McMillan, Miss Nan Barnaby. Included among the guests were Mrs. J. Douglas Harris, Mrs. F. E. Sayre, Mrs. George West Jones, Mrs. Charles Westwick, Mrs. W. W. White, Mrs. Percy Robinson, Mrs. Hansard, Mrs. Stratton, Mrs. Eason, Mrs. James Jack, Mrs. J. Boyle Watson, Mrs. D. Patterson, Mrs. George Westmore, Mrs. Leonard Tilley, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Louis Barker, Mrs. Clarence Allen, Mrs. D. Carleton Church, Mrs. del. Carrington, Mrs. Walter Hilly, Mrs. George Mahon, Mrs. W. E. Foster, Mrs. Fred Macmillan, Mrs. A. S. Downman, Mrs. James U. Thomas, Mrs. Fred Peters, Mrs. Frank Fairweather, Mrs. F. E. Harding, Mrs. Robert Cruikshank, Mrs. Harold C. Schofield, Mrs. John K. Schofield, Miss Mabel Thomson, Miss Olive Stone, Miss May Travers, Miss Frances Travers, Miss Nan Barnaby.

Mrs. Thomson's tea on Thursday was another enjoyable function. In the dining room the table appointments were very beautiful. Hopes of smiles extended from the electrician to the four corners of the tea table. Silver vases holding scarlet geraniums were placed about a large cut glass bowl containing quantities of these brilliant flowers. Mrs. W. E. Foster and Mrs. John Thomson presided. The tea was served by Mrs. Leonard Tilley and Mrs. Louis Barker. Mrs. E. G. Armstrong conducted the ladies to the dining room. Others assisting were Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Simeon Jones, Mrs. Percy Thomson, Mrs. Harold C. Schofield, Mrs. F. Caverhill Jones, Miss Clara Schofield, Miss Nan Barnaby, Miss Bertie Hogan, Miss McMillan. Among those present were Mrs. H. Hugh McLean, Miss Elise McLean, Mrs. Thomas McAvity, Miss Ethel McAvity, Mrs. Rock Life Knight, Mrs. Stanbury, Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. Humphrey, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. Vroom, Mrs. John E. Moore, Mrs. Blair, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Frank Peters, Mrs. Shirley Peters, Mrs. Harry MacLaren, Mrs. J. S. MacLaren, Mrs. Manchester, Miss Sadler, Mrs. Herbert Schofield, Mrs. Stetson, Mrs. F. E. Barker, Mrs. Fred Schofield, Mrs. Polard Lewis, Dr. Margaret Parks, Miss Lou Paria, Miss Madeline de Soyres. Mrs. F. Caverhill Jones entertained at a bridge for ladies last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Jones, in receiving her guests, was becomingly gowned in green velvet with embroidery on bodice and sleeves. In the dining room Mrs. George West Jones, in grey crepe de chine, black velvet hat with plumes, and Mrs. Walter Foster, in black marquisette, black hat, presided at the tea table. The prize winners were Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. Simeon Jones, Miss Edith Skinner, Mrs. Fred Harding, Mrs. Percy Thomson, Mrs. Simeon Jones, Mrs. Edith Skinner, Mrs. Fred Harding, Mrs. Percy Thomson, Miss Katie Hazen, Mrs. Mabel Thomson and Mrs. Bead as assisted with the refreshments. Among the guests were Mrs. J. Douglas Harris, Mrs. Keach, Mrs. Percy Thomson, Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. Simeon Jones, Mrs. Edith Skinner, Mrs. Fred Harding, Mrs. Percy Thomson, Miss Katie Hazen, Mrs. Mabel Thomson and Mrs. Bead as assisted with the refreshments. Among the guests were Mrs. J. Douglas Harris, Mrs. Keach, Mrs. Percy Thomson, Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. Simeon Jones, Mrs. Edith Skinner, Mrs. Fred Harding, Mrs. Percy Thomson, Miss Katie Hazen, Mrs. Mabel Thomson and Mrs. Bead as assisted with the refreshments.

Mrs. T. H. Estabrook gave one of the most elaborate receptions of the winter at her beautiful residence, Mount Pleasant last Tuesday, the occasion being the debut of her daughter, Miss Helen. The interior of the house was exquisitely decorated with quantities of spring flowers. The conservatory, where innumerable species of rare ferns are in evidence as well as plants in full bloom, caused an exclamation of admiration from all who entered. In the dining room the elegantly appointed table was profusely decorated with bride roses. The centre piece consisted of a huge cut glass bowl filled with these beautiful flowers. Smaller vases were placed among the cut glass, silver and china. In the room the mantles were banked with ferns and flowers. Mrs. W. C. Cross and Mrs. Alexander Watson poured tea and coffee. Mrs. Warlock served the tea. The ladies who assisted were Mrs. W. P. Kerr, Mrs. George W. Parker, Mrs. W. E. Myler, Miss Mabel Elkin, Miss Dorothy Creighton, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, Miss Grace McDermid, Miss Kathleen Magee, Miss Ethel Perley and Miss Helen Haley. In the drawing room Mrs. Estabrook received and she wore pale grey crepe de chine. Miss Elsie Estabrook, who received her mother, wore a lovely white nylon over silk trimmed with pearl ornaments. She carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. A few of those present were: Mrs. F. E. Barker, Mrs. Frank Stetson, Mrs. E. G. Crook, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, Mrs. W. O. Raymond, Mrs. Ernest Fairweather, Mrs. John Bullock, Mrs. C. B. J., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. O. McInerney, were two guests at the assembly hall on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Mott, of Montreal, returned from their wedding trip, last Saturday. Mrs. Mott is the daughter of Mr. George A. Henderson is the newly elected president of the Gentlemen's Club.

A very large audience devoted much pleasure to Mrs. E. A. Smith's lecture on "The History of the Loyalist Division," which was given at the college on Wednesday evening. At a dance recently given at the college at "Hallowe'en," Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Harrison McKewen, Mrs. Binning, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. A. Morison, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. David Magee, Mrs. Hildman, Mrs. F. B. Blair, Mrs. J. B. Stone, Mrs. A. E. Rising, Mrs. Sheffield, Mrs. George U. Hay, Mrs. Joseph Libby, Miss Libby, Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. McLoose.

The Misses Bessie and Bertie Armstrong entertained last on two occasions this week. On Wednesday the tea was for married ladies. In the dining room, which was handsomely decorated, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, in pale blue silk, black and white hat, and Mrs. George Mahon, in black crepe de chine, black velvet hat, presided at the tea table. They were assisted by Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Robert Cruikshank, Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Ritchie, Miss Bessie Johnson, Miss Jessie Libby, Miss Florence Ash, Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Maud Golding, Miss Laura Kay, Miss Kinan. Among the guests were Mrs. J. Dun, Mrs. A. A. Hall, Mrs. R. D. Patterson, Mrs. George McDonald, Mrs.

and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. John McKean, Moore, Col. and Mrs. G. West Jones, Mrs. Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Barker, Mrs. Percy Robinson, Dr. and Miss Christie, Dr. Addy, Miss Marion Holly, Mr. B. J. Ritchie, Mr. Arthur Adams. The prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. G. West Jones, Miss Marion Holly, Col. Jones and Mrs. Louis Barker. Mrs. Charles Miller's tea last Friday for Mrs. Usher Miller was an enjoyable function. The house was handsomely decorated with plants and flowers. Mrs. Miller was gowned in old rose silk with lace trimmings. Mrs. Usher Miller wore a stylish blue silk gown; Miss Louise Murray and Mrs. George McDonald presided in the dining room, assisted by Mrs. John E. Moore, Mrs. G. L. Taylor, Mrs. John Russell, Mrs. Arch Taylor, Mrs. Herman Sullivan, Mrs. Joshua Cowan, Mrs. F. E. Beatty. A few of the guests were the Misses Murray, Mrs. G. Crook, Mrs. C. H. Peters, Mrs. Ernest Fairweather, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Frank Foster, Mrs. H. B. Taylor, Mrs. Harvey Hayward, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. George Murray, Mrs. Rennie Murray, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. Beesford, Mrs. Mary Taylor, Miss Cowman, Miss Gregory.

Mrs. T. H. Estabrook gave one of the most elaborate receptions of the winter at her beautiful residence, Mount Pleasant last Tuesday, the occasion being the debut of her daughter, Miss Helen. The interior of the house was exquisitely decorated with quantities of spring flowers. The conservatory, where innumerable species of rare ferns are in evidence as well as plants in full bloom, caused an exclamation of admiration from all who entered. In the dining room the elegantly appointed table was profusely decorated with bride roses. The centre piece consisted of a huge cut glass bowl filled with these beautiful flowers. Smaller vases were placed among the cut glass, silver and china. In the room the mantles were banked with ferns and flowers. Mrs. W. C. Cross and Mrs. Alexander Watson poured tea and coffee. Mrs. Warlock served the tea. The ladies who assisted were Mrs. W. P. Kerr, Mrs. George W. Parker, Mrs. W. E. Myler, Miss Mabel Elkin, Miss Dorothy Creighton, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, Miss Grace McDermid, Miss Kathleen Magee, Miss Ethel Perley and Miss Helen Haley. In the drawing room Mrs. Estabrook received and she wore pale grey crepe de chine. Miss Elsie Estabrook, who received her mother, wore a lovely white nylon over silk trimmed with pearl ornaments. She carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. A few of those present were: Mrs. F. E. Barker, Mrs. Frank Stetson, Mrs. E. G. Crook, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, Mrs. W. O. Raymond, Mrs. Ernest Fairweather, Mrs. John Bullock, Mrs. C. B. J., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. O. McInerney, were two guests at the assembly hall on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Mott, of Montreal, returned from their wedding trip, last Saturday. Mrs. Mott is the daughter of Mr. George A. Henderson is the newly elected president of the Gentlemen's Club.

A very large audience devoted much pleasure to Mrs. E. A. Smith's lecture on "The History of the Loyalist Division," which was given at the college on Wednesday evening. At a dance recently given at the college at "Hallowe'en," Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Harrison McKewen, Mrs. Binning, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. A. Morison, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. David Magee, Mrs. Hildman, Mrs. F. B. Blair, Mrs. J. B. Stone, Mrs. A. E. Rising, Mrs. Sheffield, Mrs. George U. Hay, Mrs. Joseph Libby, Miss Libby, Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. McLoose.

The Misses Bessie and Bertie Armstrong entertained last on two occasions this week. On Wednesday the tea was for married ladies. In the dining room, which was handsomely decorated, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, in pale blue silk, black and white hat, and Mrs. George Mahon, in black crepe de chine, black velvet hat, presided at the tea table. They were assisted by Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Robert Cruikshank, Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Ritchie, Miss Bessie Johnson, Miss Jessie Libby, Miss Florence Ash, Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Maud Golding, Miss Laura Kay, Miss Kinan. Among the guests were Mrs. J. Dun, Mrs. A. A. Hall, Mrs. R. D. Patterson, Mrs. George McDonald, Mrs.

and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. John McKean, Moore, Col. and Mrs. G. West Jones, Mrs. Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Barker, Mrs. Percy Robinson, Dr. and Miss Christie, Dr. Addy, Miss Marion Holly, Mr. B. J. Ritchie, Mr. Arthur Adams. The prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. G. West Jones, Miss Marion Holly, Col. Jones and Mrs. Louis Barker. Mrs. Charles Miller's tea last Friday for Mrs. Usher Miller was an enjoyable function. The house was handsomely decorated with plants and flowers. Mrs. Miller was gowned in old rose silk with lace trimmings. Mrs. Usher Miller wore a stylish blue silk gown; Miss Louise Murray and Mrs. George McDonald presided in the dining room, assisted by Mrs. John E. Moore, Mrs. G. L. Taylor, Mrs. John Russell, Mrs. Arch Taylor, Mrs. Herman Sullivan, Mrs. Joshua Cowan, Mrs. F. E. Beatty. A few of the guests were the Misses Murray, Mrs. G. Crook, Mrs. C. H. Peters, Mrs. Ernest Fairweather, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Frank Foster, Mrs. H. B. Taylor, Mrs. Harvey Hayward, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. George Murray, Mrs. Rennie Murray, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. Beesford, Mrs. Mary Taylor, Miss Cowman, Miss Gregory.

Mrs. T. H. Estabrook gave one of the most elaborate receptions of the winter at her beautiful residence, Mount Pleasant last Tuesday, the occasion being the debut of her daughter, Miss Helen. The interior of the house was exquisitely decorated with quantities of spring flowers. The conservatory, where innumerable species of rare ferns are in evidence as well as plants in full bloom, caused an exclamation of admiration from all who entered. In the dining room the elegantly appointed table was profusely decorated with bride roses. The centre piece consisted of a huge cut glass bowl filled with these beautiful flowers. Smaller vases were placed among the cut glass, silver and china. In the room the mantles were banked with ferns and flowers. Mrs. W. C. Cross and Mrs. Alexander Watson poured tea and coffee. Mrs. Warlock served the tea. The ladies who assisted were Mrs. W. P. Kerr, Mrs. George W. Parker, Mrs. W. E. Myler, Miss Mabel Elkin, Miss Dorothy Creighton, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, Miss Grace McDermid, Miss Kathleen Magee, Miss Ethel Perley and Miss Helen Haley. In the drawing room Mrs. Estabrook received and she wore pale grey crepe de chine. Miss Elsie Estabrook, who received her mother, wore a lovely white nylon over silk trimmed with pearl ornaments. She carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. A few of those present were: Mrs. F. E. Barker, Mrs. Frank Stetson, Mrs. E. G. Crook, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, Mrs. W. O. Raymond, Mrs. Ernest Fairweather, Mrs. John Bullock, Mrs. C. B. J., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. O. McInerney, were two guests at the assembly hall on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Mott, of Montreal, returned from their wedding trip, last Saturday. Mrs. Mott is the daughter of Mr. George A. Henderson is the newly elected president of the Gentlemen's Club.

A very large audience devoted much pleasure to Mrs. E. A. Smith's lecture on "The History of the Loyalist Division," which was given at the college on Wednesday evening. At a dance recently given at the college at "Hallowe'en," Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Harrison McKewen, Mrs. Binning, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. A. Morison, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. David Magee, Mrs. Hildman, Mrs. F. B. Blair, Mrs. J. B. Stone, Mrs. A. E. Rising, Mrs. Sheffield, Mrs. George U. Hay, Mrs. Joseph Libby, Miss Libby, Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. McLoose.

The Misses Bessie and Bertie Armstrong entertained last on two occasions this week. On Wednesday the tea was for married ladies. In the dining room, which was handsomely decorated, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, in pale blue silk, black and white hat, and Mrs. George Mahon, in black crepe de chine, black velvet hat, presided at the tea table. They were assisted by Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Robert Cruikshank, Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Ritchie, Miss Bessie Johnson, Miss Jessie Libby, Miss Florence Ash, Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Maud Golding, Miss Laura Kay, Miss Kinan. Among the guests were Mrs. J. Dun, Mrs. A. A. Hall, Mrs. R. D. Patterson, Mrs. George McDonald, Mrs.

and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. John McKean, Moore, Col. and Mrs. G. West Jones, Mrs. Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Barker, Mrs. Percy Robinson, Dr. and Miss Christie, Dr. Addy, Miss Marion Holly, Mr. B. J. Ritchie, Mr. Arthur Adams. The prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. G. West Jones, Miss Marion Holly, Col. Jones and Mrs. Louis Barker. Mrs. Charles Miller's tea last Friday for Mrs. Usher Miller was an enjoyable function. The house was handsomely decorated with plants and flowers. Mrs. Miller was gowned in old rose silk with lace trimmings. Mrs. Usher Miller wore a stylish blue silk gown; Miss Louise Murray and Mrs. George McDonald presided in the dining room, assisted by Mrs. John E. Moore, Mrs. G. L. Taylor, Mrs. John Russell, Mrs. Arch Taylor, Mrs. Herman Sullivan, Mrs. Joshua Cowan, Mrs. F. E. Beatty. A few of the guests were the Misses Murray, Mrs. G. Crook, Mrs. C. H. Peters, Mrs. Ernest Fairweather, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Frank Foster, Mrs. H. B. Taylor, Mrs. Harvey Hayward, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. George Murray, Mrs. Rennie Murray, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. Beesford, Mrs. Mary Taylor, Miss Cowman, Miss Gregory.

Mrs. T. H. Estabrook gave one of the most elaborate receptions of the winter at her beautiful residence, Mount Pleasant last Tuesday, the occasion being the debut of her daughter, Miss Helen. The interior of the house was exquisitely decorated with quantities of spring flowers. The conservatory, where innumerable species of rare ferns are in evidence as well as plants in full bloom, caused an exclamation of admiration from all who entered. In the dining room the elegantly appointed table was profusely decorated with bride roses. The centre piece consisted of a huge cut glass bowl filled with these beautiful flowers. Smaller vases were placed among the cut glass, silver and china. In the room the mantles were banked with ferns and flowers. Mrs. W. C. Cross and Mrs. Alexander Watson poured tea and coffee. Mrs. Warlock served the tea. The ladies who assisted were Mrs. W. P. Kerr, Mrs. George W. Parker, Mrs. W. E. Myler, Miss Mabel Elkin, Miss Dorothy Creighton, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, Miss Grace McDermid, Miss Kathleen Magee, Miss Ethel Perley and Miss Helen Haley. In the drawing room Mrs. Estabrook received and she wore pale grey crepe de chine. Miss Elsie Estabrook, who received her mother, wore a lovely white nylon over silk trimmed with pearl ornaments. She carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. A few of those present were: Mrs. F. E. Barker, Mrs. Frank Stetson, Mrs. E. G. Crook, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, Mrs. W. O. Raymond, Mrs. Ernest Fairweather, Mrs. John Bullock, Mrs. C. B. J., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. O. McInerney, were two guests at the assembly hall on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Mott, of Montreal, returned from their wedding trip, last Saturday. Mrs. Mott is the daughter of Mr. George A. Henderson is the newly elected president of the Gentlemen's Club.

A very large audience devoted much pleasure to Mrs. E. A. Smith's lecture on "The History of the Loyalist Division," which was given at the college on Wednesday evening. At a dance recently given at the college at "Hallowe'en," Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Harrison McKewen, Mrs. Binning, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. A. Morison, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. David Magee, Mrs. Hildman, Mrs. F. B. Blair, Mrs. J. B. Stone, Mrs. A. E. Rising, Mrs. Sheffield, Mrs. George U. Hay, Mrs. Joseph Libby, Miss Libby, Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. McLoose.

The Misses Bessie and Bertie Armstrong entertained last on two occasions this week. On Wednesday the tea was for married ladies. In the dining room, which was handsomely decorated, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, in pale blue silk, black and white hat, and Mrs. George Mahon, in black crepe de chine, black velvet hat, presided at the tea table. They were assisted by Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Robert Cruikshank, Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Ritchie, Miss Bessie Johnson, Miss Jessie Libby, Miss Florence Ash, Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Maud Golding, Miss Laura Kay, Miss Kinan. Among the guests were Mrs. J. Dun, Mrs. A. A. Hall, Mrs. R. D. Patterson, Mrs. George McDonald, Mrs.

and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. John McKean, Moore, Col. and Mrs. G. West Jones, Mrs. Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Barker, Mrs. Percy Robinson, Dr. and Miss Christie, Dr. Addy, Miss Marion Holly, Mr. B. J. Ritchie, Mr. Arthur Adams. The prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. G. West Jones, Miss Marion Holly, Col. Jones and Mrs. Louis Barker. Mrs. Charles Miller's tea last Friday for Mrs. Usher Miller was an enjoyable function. The house was handsomely decorated with plants and flowers. Mrs. Miller was gowned in old rose silk with lace trimmings. Mrs. Usher Miller wore a stylish blue silk gown; Miss Louise Murray and Mrs. George McDonald presided in the dining room, assisted by Mrs. John E. Moore, Mrs. G. L. Taylor, Mrs. John Russell, Mrs. Arch Taylor, Mrs. Herman Sullivan, Mrs. Joshua Cowan, Mrs. F. E. Beatty. A few of the guests were the Misses Murray, Mrs. G. Crook, Mrs. C. H. Peters, Mrs. Ernest Fairweather, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Frank Foster, Mrs. H. B. Taylor, Mrs. Harvey Hayward, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. George Murray, Mrs. Rennie Murray, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. Beesford, Mrs. Mary Taylor, Miss Cowman, Miss Gregory.

Mrs. T. H. Estabrook gave one of the most elaborate receptions of the winter at her beautiful residence, Mount Pleasant last Tuesday, the occasion being the debut of her daughter, Miss Helen. The interior of the house was exquisitely decorated with quantities of spring flowers. The conservatory, where innumerable species of rare ferns are in evidence as well as plants in full bloom, caused an exclamation of admiration from all who entered. In the dining room the elegantly appointed table was profusely decorated with bride roses. The centre piece consisted of a huge cut glass bowl filled with these beautiful flowers. Smaller vases were placed among the cut glass, silver and china. In the room the mantles were banked with ferns and flowers. Mrs. W. C. Cross and Mrs. Alexander Watson poured tea and coffee. Mrs. Warlock served the tea. The ladies who assisted were Mrs. W. P. Kerr, Mrs. George W. Parker, Mrs. W. E. Myler, Miss Mabel Elkin, Miss Dorothy Creighton, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, Miss Grace McDermid, Miss Kathleen Magee, Miss Ethel Perley and Miss Helen Haley. In the drawing room Mrs. Estabrook received and she wore pale grey crepe de chine. Miss Elsie Estabrook, who received her mother, wore a lovely white nylon over silk trimmed with pearl ornaments. She carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. A few of those present were: Mrs. F. E. Barker, Mrs. Frank Stetson, Mrs. E. G. Crook, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, Mrs. W. O. Raymond, Mrs. Ernest Fairweather, Mrs. John Bullock, Mrs. C. B. J., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. O. McInerney, were two guests at the assembly hall on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Mott, of Montreal, returned from their wedding trip, last Saturday. Mrs. Mott is the daughter of Mr. George A. Henderson is the newly elected president of the Gentlemen's Club.

A very large audience devoted much pleasure to Mrs. E. A. Smith's lecture on "The History of the Loyalist Division," which was given at the college on Wednesday evening. At a dance recently given at the college at "Hallowe'en," Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Harrison McKewen, Mrs. Binning, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. A. Morison, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. David Magee, Mrs. Hildman, Mrs. F. B. Blair, Mrs. J. B. Stone, Mrs. A. E. Rising, Mrs. Sheffield, Mrs. George U. Hay, Mrs. Joseph Libby, Miss Libby, Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. McLoose.

The Misses Bessie and Bertie Armstrong entertained last on two occasions this week. On Wednesday the tea was for married ladies. In the dining room, which was handsomely decorated, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, in pale blue silk, black and white hat, and Mrs. George Mahon, in black crepe de chine, black velvet hat, presided at the tea table. They were assisted by Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Robert Cruikshank, Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Ritchie, Miss Bessie Johnson, Miss Jessie Libby, Miss Florence Ash, Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Maud Golding, Miss Laura Kay, Miss Kinan. Among the guests were Mrs. J. Dun, Mrs. A. A. Hall, Mrs. R. D. Patterson, Mrs. George McDonald, Mrs.

and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. John McKean, Moore, Col. and Mrs. G. West Jones, Mrs. Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Barker, Mrs. Percy Robinson, Dr. and Miss Christie, Dr. Addy, Miss Marion Holly, Mr. B. J. Ritchie, Mr. Arthur Adams. The prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. G. West Jones, Miss Marion Holly, Col. Jones and Mrs. Louis Barker. Mrs. Charles Miller's tea last Friday for Mrs. Usher Miller was an enjoyable function. The house was handsomely decorated with plants and flowers. Mrs. Miller was gowned in old rose silk with lace trimmings. Mrs. Usher Miller wore a stylish blue silk gown; Miss Louise Murray and Mrs. George McDonald presided in the dining room, assisted by Mrs. John E. Moore, Mrs. G. L. Taylor, Mrs. John Russell, Mrs. Arch Taylor, Mrs. Herman Sullivan, Mrs. Joshua Cowan, Mrs. F. E. Beatty. A few of the guests were the Misses Murray, Mrs. G. Crook, Mrs. C. H. Peters, Mrs. Ernest Fairweather, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Frank Foster, Mrs. H. B. Taylor, Mrs. Harvey Hayward, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. George Murray, Mrs. Rennie Murray, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. Beesford, Mrs. Mary Taylor, Miss Cowman, Miss Gregory.

Mrs. T. H. Estabrook gave one of the most elaborate receptions of the winter at her beautiful residence, Mount Pleasant last Tuesday, the occasion being the debut of her daughter, Miss Helen. The interior of the house was exquisitely decorated with quantities of spring flowers. The conservatory, where innumerable species of rare ferns are in evidence as well as plants in full bloom, caused an exclamation of admiration from all who entered. In the dining room the elegantly appointed table was profusely decorated with bride roses. The centre piece consisted of a huge cut glass bowl filled with these beautiful flowers. Smaller vases were placed among the cut glass, silver and china. In the room the mantles were banked with ferns and flowers. Mrs. W. C. Cross and Mrs. Alexander Watson poured tea and coffee. Mrs. Warlock served the tea. The ladies who assisted were Mrs. W. P. Kerr, Mrs. George W. Parker, Mrs. W. E. Myler, Miss Mabel Elkin, Miss Dorothy Creighton, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, Miss Grace McDermid, Miss Kathleen Magee, Miss Ethel Perley and Miss Helen Haley. In the drawing room Mrs. Estabrook received and she wore pale grey crepe de chine. Miss Elsie Estabrook, who received her mother, wore a lovely white nylon over silk trimmed with pearl ornaments. She carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. A few of those present were: Mrs. F. E. Barker, Mrs. Frank Stetson, Mrs. E. G. Crook, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, Mrs. W. O. Raymond, Mrs. Ernest Fairweather, Mrs. John Bullock, Mrs. C. B. J., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. O. McInerney, were two guests at the assembly hall on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Mott, of Montreal, returned from their wedding trip, last Saturday. Mrs. Mott is the daughter of Mr. George A. Henderson is the newly elected president of the Gentlemen's Club.

A very large audience devoted much pleasure to Mrs. E. A. Smith's lecture on "The History of the Loyalist Division," which was given at the college on Wednesday evening. At a dance recently given at the college at "Hallowe'en," Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Harrison McKewen, Mrs. Binning, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. A. Morison, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. David Magee, Mrs. Hildman, Mrs. F. B. Blair, Mrs. J. B. Stone, Mrs. A. E. Rising, Mrs. Sheffield, Mrs. George U. Hay, Mrs. Joseph Libby, Miss Libby, Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. McLoose.

The Misses Bessie and Bertie Armstrong entertained last on two occasions this week. On Wednesday the tea was for married ladies. In the dining room, which was handsomely decorated, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, in pale blue silk, black and white hat, and Mrs. George Mahon, in black crepe de chine, black velvet hat, presided at the tea table. They were assisted by Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Robert Cruikshank, Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Ritchie, Miss Bessie Johnson, Miss Jessie Libby, Miss Florence Ash, Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Maud Golding, Miss Laura Kay, Miss Kinan. Among the guests were Mrs. J. Dun, Mrs. A. A. Hall, Mrs. R. D. Patterson, Mrs. George McDonald, Mrs.

and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. John McKean, Moore, Col. and Mrs. G. West Jones, Mrs. Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Barker, Mrs. Percy Robinson, Dr. and Miss Christie, Dr. Addy, Miss Marion Holly, Mr. B. J. Ritchie, Mr. Arthur Adams. The prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. G. West Jones, Miss Marion Holly, Col. Jones and Mrs. Louis Barker. Mrs. Charles Miller's tea last Friday for Mrs. Usher Miller was an enjoyable function. The house was handsomely decorated with plants and flowers. Mrs. Miller was gowned in old rose silk with lace trimmings. Mrs. Usher Miller wore a stylish blue silk gown; Miss Louise Murray and Mrs. George McDonald presided in the dining room, assisted by Mrs. John E. Moore, Mrs. G. L. Taylor, Mrs. John Russell, Mrs. Arch Taylor, Mrs. Herman Sullivan, Mrs. Joshua Cowan, Mrs. F. E. Beatty. A few of the guests were the Misses Murray, Mrs. G. Crook, Mrs. C. H. Peters, Mrs. Ernest Fairweather, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Frank Foster, Mrs. H. B. Taylor, Mrs. Harvey Hayward, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. George Murray, Mrs. Rennie Murray, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. Beesford, Mrs. Mary Taylor, Miss Cowman, Miss Gregory.

Mrs. T. H. Estabrook gave one of the most elaborate receptions of the winter at her beautiful residence, Mount Pleasant last Tuesday, the occasion being the debut of her daughter, Miss Helen. The interior of the house was exquisitely decorated with quantities of spring flowers. The conservatory, where innumerable species of rare ferns are in evidence as well as plants in full bloom, caused an exclamation of admiration from all who entered. In the dining room the elegantly appointed table was profusely decorated with bride roses. The centre piece consisted of a huge cut glass bowl filled with these beautiful flowers. Smaller vases were placed among the cut glass, silver and china. In the room the mantles were banked with ferns and flowers. Mrs. W. C. Cross and Mrs. Alexander Watson poured tea and coffee. Mrs. Warlock served the tea. The ladies who assisted were Mrs. W. P. Kerr, Mrs. George W. Parker, Mrs. W. E. Myler, Miss Mabel Elkin, Miss Dorothy Creighton, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, Miss Grace McDermid, Miss Kathleen Magee, Miss Ethel Perley and Miss Helen Haley. In the drawing room Mrs. Estabrook received and she wore pale grey crepe de chine. Miss Elsie Estabrook, who received her mother, wore a lovely white nylon over silk trimmed with pearl ornaments. She carried a large bouquet of American Beauty roses. A few of those present were: Mrs. F. E. Barker, Mrs. Frank Stetson, Mrs. E. G. Crook, Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. and Miss Elizabeth, Mrs. W. O. Raymond, Mrs. Ernest Fairweather, Mrs. John Bullock, Mrs. C. B. J., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. O. McInerney, were two guests at the assembly hall on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Mott, of Montreal, returned from their wedding trip, last Saturday. Mrs. Mott is the daughter of Mr. George A. Henderson is the newly elected president of the Gentlemen's Club.

A very large audience devoted much pleasure to Mrs. E. A. Smith's lecture on "The History of the Loyalist Division," which was given at the college on Wednesday evening. At a dance recently given at the college at "Hallowe'en," Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Harrison McKewen, Mrs. Binning, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. A. Morison, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. David Magee, Mrs. Hildman, Mrs. F. B. Blair, Mrs. J. B. Stone, Mrs. A. E. Rising, Mrs. Sheffield, Mrs. George U. Hay, Mrs. Joseph Libby, Miss Libby, Mrs. David McMillan, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. McLoose.

The Misses Bessie and Bertie Armstrong entertained last on two occasions this week. On Wednesday the tea was for married ladies. In the dining room, which was handsomely decorated, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, in pale blue silk, black and white hat, and Mrs. George Mahon, in black crepe de chine, black velvet hat, presided at the tea table. They were assisted by Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Robert Cruikshank, Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Ritchie, Miss Bessie Johnson, Miss Jessie Libby, Miss Florence Ash, Mrs. John M. Robinson, Mrs. Maud Golding, Miss Laura Kay, Miss Kinan. Among the guests were Mrs. J. Dun, Mrs. A. A. Hall, Mrs. R. D. Patterson, Mrs. George McDonald, Mrs.

Genuine Aviation Towel

Made from Eider-Down Wool, the wool, the right stitch, and the right to buy them at.

Eider-Down Wool, for making Toques, 35c. per ball.

Our demonstrator will show you how to do the New York stitch.

What 15 cts. will buy now: 3 Bunches Violets, 1 yd. wide Silk Ribbon, Choice of all Barretts, Choice of all Co. Hats, Wings and Fancy Feathers 25c. and 35c. Winter Underwear, now Veiling, worth 25c. and 50c. yd., now

MARR MILLINERY CO.

1, 3, 5 Charlotte Street

CONSERVATIVE PAPER SHOWS UP INCONSISTENCY OF PRESENT DAY TALK

Party Now Led By R. L. Borden Has Never, 5 Days of Sir John A. Macdonald, Seen Me Reciprocity Until Sir Wilfrid's Government Recent Agreement

(Ottawa Citizen)
The last definite stand of the Conservative party on the reciprocity issue, it is worth noting at this juncture, was one taken by the negotiations entered into by this country through the medium of the British government, with the United States in 1891. These proposals, looking to the extension of Canada's commerce with the republic, emanated from the administration of the day, that of Sir John Macdonald, and were considered of great importance to justify an appeal to the country before further steps were taken in the settlement of the various questions inseparable from such an understanding.

The last definite stand of the Conservative party on the reciprocity issue, it is worth noting at this juncture, was one taken by the negotiations entered into by this country through the medium of the British government, with the United States in 1891. These proposals, looking to the extension of Canada's commerce with the republic, emanated from the administration of the day, that of Sir John Macdonald, and were considered of great importance to justify an appeal to the country before further steps were taken in the settlement of the various questions inseparable from such an understanding.

The last definite stand of the Conservative party on the reciprocity issue, it is worth noting at this juncture, was one taken by the negotiations entered into by this country through the medium of the British government, with the United States in 1891. These proposals, looking to the extension of Canada's commerce with the republic, emanated from the administration of the day, that of Sir John Macdonald, and were considered of great importance to justify an appeal to the country before further steps were taken in the settlement of the various questions inseparable from such an understanding.

The last definite stand of the Conservative party on the reciprocity issue, it is worth noting at this juncture, was one taken by the negotiations entered into by this country through the medium of the British government, with the United States in 1891. These proposals, looking to the extension of Canada's commerce with the republic, emanated from the administration of the day, that of Sir John Macdonald, and were considered of great importance to justify an appeal to the country before further steps were taken in the settlement of the various questions inseparable from such an understanding.

The last definite stand of the Conservative party on the reciprocity issue, it is worth noting at this juncture, was one taken by the negotiations entered into by this country through the medium of the British government, with the United States in 1891. These proposals, looking to the extension of Canada's commerce with the republic, emanated from the administration of the day, that of Sir John Macdonald, and were considered of great importance to justify an appeal to the country before further steps were taken in the settlement of the various questions inseparable from such an understanding.

The last definite stand of the Conservative party on the reciprocity issue, it is worth noting at this juncture, was one taken by the negotiations entered into by this country through the medium of the British government, with the United States in 1891. These proposals, looking to the extension of Canada's commerce with the republic, emanated from the administration of the day, that of Sir John Macdonald, and were considered of great importance to justify an appeal to the country before further steps were taken in the settlement of the various questions inseparable from such an understanding.

The last definite stand of the Conservative party on the reciprocity issue, it is worth noting at this juncture, was one taken by the negotiations entered into by this country through the medium of the British government, with the United States in 1891. These proposals, looking to the extension of Canada's commerce with the republic, emanated from the administration of the day, that of Sir John Macdonald, and were considered of great importance to justify an appeal to the country before further steps were taken in the settlement of the various questions inseparable from such an understanding.

The last definite stand of the Conservative party on the reciprocity issue, it is worth noting at this juncture, was one taken by the negotiations entered into by this country through the medium of the British government, with the United States in 1891. These proposals, looking to the extension of Canada's commerce with the republic, emanated from the administration of the day, that of Sir John Macdonald, and were considered of great importance to justify an appeal to the country before further steps were taken in the settlement of the various questions inseparable from such an understanding.

The last definite stand of the Conservative party on the reciprocity issue, it is worth noting at this juncture, was one taken by the negotiations entered into by this country through the medium of the British government, with the United States in 1891. These proposals, looking to the extension of Canada's commerce with the republic, emanated from the administration of the day, that of Sir John Macdonald, and were considered of great importance to justify an appeal to the country before further steps were taken in the settlement of the various questions inseparable from