Amatite Roofing!
You'll Never Need a Paint Brush.

When you lay Amatite on the roof you're through with it. You don't have to paint it every year to keep it from leaking. It has a real mineral surface which does not need painting. Most of the old-fashioned, "smooth surfaced" or Rubber Roofing, which requires painting, costs more than Amatite and you have all the extra cost of paint. It looks easy now to give your roof an occasional coating in the future. But do you realize that in 1913 you must paint it, and in 1915 you must paint it, and in 1917 you must paint it, and in 1919—that far-away year—you must still be painting that confounded old Rubber Roof. Why, a new Amatite Roof will cost less than the paint alone. Send us for free samples and booklet explaining all about it. Ask your dealer for Amatite Roofing.

His Excellency the Governor in Council has been pleased to direct that the following Proclamation of His Majesty the King, superseding Proclamation of August 5th and August 12th last, relating to Trading with the Enemy, shall come into effect on the date hereof.

JOHN R. BENNETT,
Colonial Secretary.
Dept. of the Colonial Secretary,
Sept. 15th, 1914.

BY THE KING
A PROCLAMATION
Relating to Trading with the Enemy.

GEORGE R. I.
Whereas a state of War has existed between Us and the German Empire since 11 p.m. on August 4th, 1914, and a state of War has existed between Us and the dual monarchy of Austria-Hungary since from midnight on August 12th, 1914;

And whereas it is contrary to law for any person resident, carrying on business or being in our Dominion, to trade or have any commercial or financial transactions with any person resident or carrying on business in the German Empire or Austria-Hungary without permission;

And whereas by our Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, relating to trading with the enemy, certain classes of transactions with the German Empire were prohibited;

And whereas by paragraph 2 of our Proclamation of the 12th August, 1914, the said Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, was declared to be applicable to Austria-Hungary;

And whereas it is desirable to restate and extend the prohibitions contained in the former Proclamations, and for that purpose to revoke the Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, and paragraph 2 of the Proclamation of the 12th August, 1914, and to substitute this Proclamation therefor;

And whereas it is expedient and necessary to warn all persons resident in our Dominion, of their duties and obligations towards Us, Our Crown, and Government;

Now, therefore, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of our Privy Council, to issue Our Royal Proclamation declaring and it is hereby declared as follows:

1. The Proclamation of the 5th August, 1914, relating to trading with the enemy, and paragraph 2 of the said Proclamation of the 12th August, 1914, together with any public announcement officially issued in explanation thereof, are hereby, as from the date hereof, revoked, and from and after the date hereof, this present Proclamation is substituted therefor.

2. The expression "enemy country" in this Proclamation means the territories of the German Empire and of the dual Monarchy of Austria-Hungary, together with all the Colonies and Dependencies thereof.

3. The expression "enemy" in this Proclamation means any person or body of persons of whatever nationality resident or carrying on business in the enemy country, but does not include persons of enemy nationality who are neither resident nor carrying on business in the enemy country. In the case of incorporated bodies, enemy character attaches only to those incorporated in an enemy country.

4. The expression "outbreak of war" in this Proclamation means eleven p.m. on the 4th August, 1914, in relation to the German Empire, its Colonies and Dependencies, and midnight on the twelfth August, 1914, in relation to Austria-Hungary, its Colonies and Dependencies.

5. From and after the date of this Proclamation the following prohibitions shall have effect (save so far as licenses may be issued as hereinafter provided), and We do hereby accordingly warn all persons resident, carrying on business or being in our Dominion—

- (1) Not to pay any sum of money to or for the benefit of an enemy.
- (2) Not to compromise or give security for the payment of any debt or other sum of money with or for the benefit of an enemy.
- (3) Not to act on behalf of any enemy in drawing, accepting, paying, presenting for acceptance or payment, negotiating or otherwise dealing with any negotiable instrument.
- (4) Not to accept, pay, or otherwise deal with any negotiable instrument which is held by or on behalf of an enemy, provided that this prohibition shall not be deemed to be infringed by any person who has no reasonable ground for believing that the instrument is held by or on behalf of an enemy.

(5) Not to enter into any new transaction, or complete any transaction already entered into with an enemy in any stocks, shares, or other securities.

(6) Not to make or enter into any new marine, life, fire or other policy or contract of insurance with or for the benefit of an enemy; nor to accept, or give effect to, any insurance of any risk arising under any policy or contract of insurance (including re-insurance) made or entered into with or for the benefit of an enemy before the outbreak of War.

(7) Not directly or indirectly to supply to or for the use or benefit of, or obtain from, an enemy country or an enemy, any goods, wares or merchandise, nor directly or indirectly to supply to or for the use or benefit of, or obtain from any person any goods, wares or merchandise, for or by way of transmission to or from an enemy country or an enemy, nor directly or indirectly to supply to or for the use or benefit of, or obtain from, an enemy country or an enemy, any goods, wares or merchandise destined for or coming from an enemy country or an enemy.

(8) Not to permit any British ship to leave for, enter, or communicate with, any port or place in an enemy country.

(9) Not to enter into any commercial, financial or other contract or obligation with or for the benefit of an enemy.

(10) Not to enter into any transactions with an enemy if and when they are prohibited by an Order in Council made and published on the recommendations of a Secretary of State even though they would otherwise be permitted by law or by this or any other Proclamation.

And We do hereby further warn all persons that whoever in contravention of the law shall commit, aid or abet any of the aforesaid acts, is guilty of a crime and will be liable to punishment and penalties accordingly.

6. Provided always that where an enemy has a branch locally situated in British, allied, or neutral territory, not being neutral territory in Europe, transactions by or with such branch shall not be treated as transaction by or with an enemy.

7. Nothing in this Proclamation shall be deemed to prohibit payments by or on account of persons resident, carrying on business or being in our Dominion, if such payments arise out of transactions entered into before the outbreak of War or otherwise permitted.

8. Nothing in this Proclamation shall be taken to prohibit anything which shall be expressly permitted by our license, or by the license given on our behalf by a Secretary of State, or the Board of Trade, whether such license be specially granted to individuals or be announced as applying to classes of persons.

9. This Proclamation shall be called "The Trading with the Enemy Proclamation, Number 1."

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this 10th day of September, in the year of Our Lord One thousand Nine Hundred and Fourteen, and in the Fifth year of Our Reign.

Germany Must Place Loan at Home

New York, Sept. 14.—If Germany succeeds in placing the $250,000,000 war loan just announced, she will have to place it at home.

That is the unanimous opinion of leading New York bankers canvassed yesterday. To a man they asserted that with the money markets of Europe and the United States closed to her, Germany will find that the bankers boycott, for years a threat against German aggression which was ignored by the Kaiser's advisers, will have to be reckoned with now that the dash on Paris is checked and the advantage, for the moment at least, is with the allies.

The Situation in Hamburg Serious

Rome, Sept. 11.—The Giornale D'Italia declares that Hamburg is in a serious situation on account of lack of food and employment.

A return traveller brought the information and says that while he was in Hamburg eggs were selling there at ten marks ($2.50) a dozen, while fresh meat was priceless, all cattle having been requisitioned. The smallest quantity of fresh milk, butter and eggs is reserved for the hospitals, the remainder together with all other available food is taken to the army storehouse, where it is accumulated by the General Staff for the use of the army.

Traffic has practically ceased in Hamburg it is asserted, and 1,500 ships are idle.

Our Duty

The interest manifested in the Patriotic Movement in this section is not so general as one would like to see it. There are, perhaps, various reasons for this, but we are convinced that every true Briton, no matter what his opinions may be in reference to one question or another, should at this particular time know no party and no question. All should be for the State, the Empire.

It may be good policy on certain occasions and under certain conditions for men to assume a passive or negative attitude, but an occasion like this demands of every true patriot POSITIVE ACTION. Our motto should be the motto of Nelson when he flashed out the immortal watchword "England expects that every man this day will do his duty."

Carson Married

A despatch from London announces that Sir Edward Carson, the leader of the Ulsterites, was married at Wincanton, Somerset, England, this forenoon, to Miss Ruby Frewen, niece of Moreton Frewen, formerly Nationalist member of Parliament for North-east Cork. Sir Edward Carson was born in 1854 and was previously married, his wife dying about two years ago. He has two sons and two daughters.

Collision in St. Lawrence

Quebec, Sept. 13.—The Dominion Government steamer Montserrat, sunk in St. Lawrence, 23 miles from Quebec this morning. She was struck by the Dominion coal collier Ligan, in a fog; 12 lives were lost. Fourteen lives were lost in the Montserrat. The second officer, LeChance, and one other officer were lost. Among the lost are two women and 11 children, the families of the light house keepers at Belle Isle and Flower Island.

Over 100,000 boy scouts are now performing semi military services throughout Britain, and thousands are volunteering daily. Their duties include the guarding and patrolling of bridges, culverts, telegraph and telephone lines, acting as guides, serving as signallers, carrying dispatches; collecting information as to supplies; picking up and forwarding despatches dropped by aircraft; assisting coast guards as sea scouts; and distributing notices to inhabitants.

A law was passed at the spring session of the Legislature in reference to the picking of partridge berries. Owing to an error in the public notice published in the Royal Gazette, and the means taken by the Minister of Agriculture and Mines in letting the public know the date on which people could commence picking the berries—that of placing a small poster in a post-office—endless confusion resulted. Some persons claimed berries could not be picked until Sept. 15th; others claimed you could commence picking them on Saturday, Sept. 12th, while others said Monday was the right day. Still another report was circulated that no blue berries could be picked after Tuesday, Sept. 15th. The Dept. could have adopted better means than they did in letting the public know the correct time in which partridge berries could have been picked.
