SESSIONS-MURRAY.

A BRILLIANT EVENT AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.

The Wedding of Miss Murray and Mr. Murray, a Grand Reception, Supper and Dance at St. John's Church, on Wednesday, June 10, 1891. The guests invited—over 1000.

To the young ladies of St. John the most interesting and exciting event of today will be the ceremony which takes place at St. John's (evening) church at 8 o'clock p. m., when Miss Kate Ford Murray, daughter of ex-United States Consul James Murray, of this city, will be united in marriage to Mr. George Washburn Sessions of New York. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. John de la Motte, and doubtless the church will be filled to the doors with the invited guests and their numerous friends.

The bride is Miss Kate Ford Murray, daughter of ex-United States Consul James Murray, of this city, will be united in marriage to Mr. George Washburn Sessions of New York. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. John de la Motte, and doubtless the church will be filled to the doors with the invited guests and their numerous friends.

SPECIAL DEPARTMENT FOR LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S UNDERCLOTHING.

"UNSHRINKABLE"

This is the name given by us to a line of Ladies' and Children's Merino Yarns, which we introduced to the public about two years ago. Time and use have proved our selection of this particular line of Underclothing was a good one, and the term "Unshrinkable" will apply.

These Undergarments have given the greatest amount of wear and satisfaction of any brand ever shown by the trade. The price is low for the quality, and every garment is warranted to wear well and not to shrink. Unlike ordinary Merino goods commonly sold at the price of the "Unshrinkable" brand they do not become hard in wearing, but retain the soft finish and woolly feeling until worn out.

"UNSHRINKABLE" MERINO

are made in White and Grey, High Neck, Long and Short Sleeves in Ladies and Children's sizes, from infants of one year old to Ladies Double Extra whole yard down the front, an advantage which mothers will know how to appreciate in dressing a small child.
