Just as the day shift had about comleave the mine at 6.30 o'clock, a terrific explosion rent the interior of the workings and nineteen miners who were working in the vicinity were thrown in all directions, the roof came tumbling down and the close air from it becam stupifying. The men rushed in every direction, seeking means of escape, bu only nine succeeded in reaching the pit mouth alive. These were picked up by the rescuing party in different positions of exhaustion after an hour of frantic search. The other ten, perhaps, never regained consciousness after the disaster. Their bodies were found lying in all shapes horribly burned when the rescuing party reached them. The explosion occurred in the Ferguson mine of the Dunbar Furnace Company, which adjoins the "Hill Farm Mine." It is believed by the mining experts that the fire which has been raging in the Hill Farm mine since the disaster of 1890 broke through the walls which had been erected between the Hill Farm mine and the Ferguson mine, and caused an ex- No. 11, Victoria, B. They assert that the infernal machine, containing many pounds of dynamite, had been placed in the sixth level, which is part of the abandoned workings of the mine, within a few inches of the shaft, when a loaded revolver was fixed in the shaft and pointed directly towards the infernal machine. The trigger of the revolver was attached to a string, which was thrown across the shaft in such a manner that the evolver would explode, the bullet striking the infernal machine

TWENTY-SEVEN PERISHED. Italian Laborers Lost Their Lives Fire Which Destroyed Their Shanty.

Johnstown, Pa., Nov. 21 .- While over 100 Italians railroad laborers were asleep in a shanty near Lilly, Pa., on the Pennsylvania railroad early to-day, the building caught fire, and before they could escape 27 were burned to death, and a score or more were seriously in jured.

The men were employed by McMennim and Simson, on the Pennsylvania ailroad improvements, between Lilly and Portage. The shanty was about 100 feet long and one story in height. One end was devoted to the cooking and eating, and at the other end the men were asleep in bunks. There was only one door at each end, and windows were few and small.

The fire is supposed to have started from an overheated stove in the kitchen. The building burned like tinder, and the flames were upon the men before pleted its labors and were about to any of them were aroused.
