ST. PIERRE.
Heart-Rending Story of Survivor of S. S. Roraima.
Leaped Into the Sea to Be Almost Boiled—Children Moaning For Water.

NEW YORK, May 13.—James Taylor, who was one of the officers of the Roraima, the Quebec line steamship which was destroyed in the harbor of St. Pierre, gives a graphic account of the tragedy of last Thursday, says a despatch to the Herald from St. Kitts, Island of St. Christopher, B. W. I.
"We experienced the greatest difficulty in getting into port," he said. "Appalling sounds were issuing from the mountains behind the town, which was shrouded in darkness. All the passengers were up and some were trying to obtain photographs."
"Suddenly I heard a tremendous explosion. Ashes began to fall thicker upon the deck, and I could see a black cloud sweeping down upon us. I dived below and dragged with me Samuel Thomas, a gangway man, and a fellow countryman, sprang into a room, shutting the door to keep out the heat, which was already unbearable."
"The ship rocked and I expected every moment that it would sink. Outside I heard a voice pleading for the door to be opened. It was Scott, the first officer, and I opened the door and dragged him into the room."
"It soon became unbearably hot, and I went on deck. All about were lying the dead and dying. Little children were moaning for water. I did what I could for them. I obtained water, but when it was held to their swollen lips they were unable to swallow, because of the ashes which clogged their throats. One little chap took water into his mouth and rinsed out the ashes, but even then could not swallow, so badly was his throat burned. He sank back unconscious and a few minutes later was dead."
"All aft the ship was afire, and from the land came draughts of terrible heat. At last, when I could stand no longer, I sprang overboard. The water was almost hot enough to parboil me, but a wave soon swept in from the ocean, bringing with it cold water. I was caught in the receding wave, which was of tidal velocity and was carried out to sea. Then, on the second return of the wave I was washed up against an overturned sloop, to which I clung. A few minutes after I was joined by another man, whom I learned was Capt. Muggah, of the Roraima. He was in dreadful agony and kept begging to be put on board his ship."
"Picking up some wreckage and a tool chest, I and five others who joined me, succeeded in forming a rude raft on which we placed the captain. Seeing an upturned boat, I asked one of the five to swim to it, so that he might have an opportunity to live. The man succeeded in getting the boat righted, but instead of returning he picked up two of his countrymen and went away in the direction of Fort de France."
"Seeing the Roddam, which had arrived in port soon after we anchored, I said good-bye to Captain Muggah and swam to the Roddam. Before I could reach her she burst into flames and put out to sea. I finally reached the Roraima about half-past two o'clock in the afternoon and later was taken off by the cruiser Sachet."

MANY DEATHS IN ST. VINCENT.
ST. THOMAS, D. W. I., May 13.—Advice received here from the Island of St. Vincent (British West Indies) forwarded on Sunday last, announced that seven hundred deaths have occurred in that island as a result of the outbreak of the Soufriere volcano, which is still slightly active.
CASTRIES, Island of St. Lucia, B. W. I., May 13.—It is announced in advice received here this morning (Tuesday) from the Island of St. Vincent (B. W. I.) that 1,600 persons have perished there since the volcano has been in eruption.
PARIS, May 13.—An official despatch received by the minister of the colonies, M. de Crais, today, says that the 400 refugees, landed at Fort de France by the French steamer Pouyet Querier, were all from the village of Leprecheur, near St. Pierre, and that the only inhabitants of St. Pierre who were saved were those who left that town before 8 o'clock on the morning of the disaster, Thursday last.
Only one man escaped from the jail at St. Pierre, Martinique, when that town was overwhelmed by the flow of lava from Mont Pelee.
The stretch from the unbearably hot St. Pierre is still almost intolerable, according to advice received here and the desolation is indescribable. It is reported at St. Thomas that the French bank at St. Pierre, transferred its funds and books to the Sachet before the catastrophe.
ST. THOMAS, D. W. I., May 13.—The Danish cruiser Valkyrien has taken on board 600 refugees from the north and northeast coasts of the Island of Martinique. The French cruiser Sachet has rescued two thousand persons from Martinique, and the French cable repair steamer Pouyet Querier has saved numbers of the sufferers from the volcanic outbreak in Martinique. All the rescued persons have been taken to Fort de France.

ROME, May 13.—King Victor Emmanuel has contributed 25,000 lire ($5,000) to the fund being raised for the relief of the sufferers from the Martinique disaster.
THE HAGUE, May 13.—The government of the Netherlands has ordered the Dutch warship Koninkin Regentes to proceed from the Island of Curacao (Dutch West Indies) to the Island of Martinique at full speed, in order to assist the sufferers from the Mont Pelee outbreak. Both chambers of the states general (parliament) have adopted resolutions expressing sympathy with France.

PARIS, May 13.—Emperor William has telegraphed sympathy and contributed $2,500. King Edward has sent $5,000. The czar and the pope have expressed sympathy with France and the sufferers of Martinique. The United States congress has voted $200,000.

OTHER VOLCANOES.
GUADAJARA, Mexico, May 13.—The Colima Volcano shows strong indications of a great eruption, and the inhabitants are leaving the valley at the base and moving a safe distance from the peak, from which smoke and puffs of flame have been belching for days. Mount Colima has threatened renewed activity for several weeks, this caused the extension of the Mexico Central railroad to Manzanillo, passing near the base of the mountain, to cease temporarily. The route of extension will probably be changed in order to avoid any possible disaster that an eruption might bring.
OMAHA, Neb., May 13.—According to despatches received from Pandor, Monteleon, Nebraska's miniature volcano, has been for two days sending up smoke and steam. The volcano is situated on the Missouri river, in Cedar county, about 150 miles above Omaha, and has been practically dead for thirty years. Reports say that all the settlers in the neighborhood are preparing to move. Geologists say smoke is caused by water from the Missouri sweeping into the limestone rock formation of the mountain, but the people are fearful of an eruption.

THE STRIKING TEAMSTERS.
Although the trouble existing between the teamsters and R. P. & W. F. Starr was supposed to have been settled, it appears that all is not over yet. A representative of the striking teamsters informed the Star today that although an agreement had been reached by which the men were to go back to work, several of them who applied at Messrs. Starr's this morning were not given employment. A special meeting of the union has been called for tonight to further discuss matters.
It is understood that Messrs. Starr, while keeping to the agreement made, do not bind themselves to employ any and every teamster who asks for work. They claim the right of engaging just as many as they need and no more, and have today given work to several of those who went on strike.

A GALE ON THE RIVER.
The gale at Fredericton on Friday and Saturday sent some lumber drift. Frank Grant of Southampton lost about 25,000 feet of hemlock boards that were in a raft awaiting shipment to Boston. Half a million feet of Donald Fraser & Sons' logs broke loose and was scattered along shore below the city. Several rafts belonging to Halbits of Gibson went adrift but were caught at the railway bridge.

BURIED TODAY.
The funeral of the late David McAlpine, which took place this afternoon from his late residence, 13 Hornfield street, was very largely attended. At half-past two o'clock services were conducted at the house by the Rev. R. W. Weddall and Rev. G. M. Campbell. The body was interred in Fernhill. Among the many beautiful floral tributes on the casket was a beautiful pillow of white roses and lilies from Mr. McAlpine's children.

A MONSTER BEAR TRAPPED.
About a week ago, says the Gleaner, at the head of Little River, Harry Allen, the well known Feniac guide, trapped one of the largest bears ever captured in the hunting grounds of New Brunswick. The monster is the largest bear Mr. Allen ever saw, and measures eleven feet four inches from the end of the nose to the end of the tail.

The yacht Nyhalia, which has been undergoing repairs at Millidgeville, will, it is expected, be taken to Fredericton tomorrow by her owner, Fred Smith.
The Baptist church at Fredericton receives $3,000 from the estate of the late James Turner, and $500 was left by the late Mrs. Benson Smith. The debt of the church was $2,500 and these bequests leave only $500 more to be raised.
It is estimated that there are 5,000,000 feet of new logs in the Douglas boom at Fredericton, and 12,000,000 feet in Sugar Island. Rattling will begin at the Douglas boom this week.

(Special to the Star.)
VICTORIA, May 13.—It is definitely known that the long missing Condor, founded, carrying a crew of 110 to death in a gale on the 9th of December. In a letter to his brother here, written from Bamfield Creek, Robert Marshall, a hunter on the sealing schooner Mary Taylor, says one of the schooners saw the Condor in distress on the night of December 9. The ship was firing off guns and rockets but it was too rough to go to her. Afterwards the sealers could not see her. The Condor sailed from here for the South Seas via Honolulu, December 2, and was never afterwards heard of, although small wreckage from her was found on the west coast of Vancouver.

SENSATIONAL SUICIDE.
Of a Wealthy Physician and a Minister's Daughter.

LEWISTON, Ida., May 13.—A special from Orofino, Idaho, tells of the death there by suicide of Dr. F. J. Leadbrook and Miss Minnie Booth, the 19-year-old daughter of Rev. G. M. Booth, pastor of the Methodist church at Moscow, Idaho.
The couple arrived there and spent the night at a hotel. On the following morning they attended an Epworth League meeting and returned to the hotel. They did not appear the next morning, and when their room was broken open at noon the girl was found dead on the bed. Leadbrook was a married man and wealthy. He was the physician of the girl's family. He came from Minnesota about a year ago and became acquainted with Miss Booth in connection with church work. She was a school teacher.

KITCHENER'S REPORT.
More Boers Killed or Captured—Thinning Out Delarey's Force.

LONDON, May 13.—The weekly report of Lord Kitchener received today shows that nineteen Boers were killed, that six were wounded and that eight hundred and two were made prisoners, that nine surrendered and that 600 rifles, 157 wagons, 400 horses and 4,300 head of cattle fell into the hands of the British.
Gen. Ian Hamilton's columns have arrived at the western railroad after sweeping the Lichtenberg district of the southwestern Transvaal. These troops brought three hundred and fifty-seven prisoners, and practically all the wagons and stock of the Boer command in that district. This makes a reduction in Gen. Delarey's forces of 800 men since he defeated Major Paris at Rorivierfontein, March 8, and captured General Methuen.

MORE FIGHTING IN HAYTI.
PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, May 13.—Further fighting occurred in the streets here before and after midnight. Some of the leaders of the revolution have retired to the U. S. legation.
