McNICOL ON BLAIR.

C. P. R. Vice President Says Hon. A. G. Blair is Best Railway Authority in Canada.

D. McNicol, vice-president of the C. P. R., and one of the best known railway men on the American continent, is authority for the statement that Hon. A. G. Blair is one of the most competent and best informed men on railway matters in Canada. Mr. McNicol made this statement to the Star in answering a question as to the effect Mr. Blair's resignation of the chairmanship of the Railway Commission would have on the general public and particularly upon railway men.

Mr. McNicol said he was not a politician and was not taking any part in election matters. There was one thing, however, he regretted and that was that Mr. Blair had resigned, as he considered him better fitted for the position of chairman of the commission than any man in Canada.

And Mr. Blair says that the G. T. P. scheme is so bad that it is an outrage.

POLICE COURT.

Sick Sailor Couldn't Find a Doctor in St. John—Bawdy House Raided.

August Reed was arrested yesterday, having been charged in charge by the captain of the Norwegian bark Acolon, now loading at this port. Reed is the steward of the vessel, was accused by the captain of refusing duty. When Capt. Halverson went on the stand he stated that Reed had frequently absented himself from the vessel without leave and that on Wednesday morning he refused to get up when called at five o'clock by the mate and that he (the captain) had to get breakfast. Reed said that he had always asked permission before going on shore, that on Tuesday night the mate gave him permission and that he did not get up on Wednesday morning to get breakfast, because he was ill. He gave as a reason for going ashore so often that he wished to consult a doctor. Every afternoon he could not find one and Tuesday evening he was too late and in addition he had only five dollars and was afraid that was not enough money. The mate was sent for and admitted that he gave Reed permission to go ashore Tuesday.

Reed was represented by W. H. Trueman and J. Royden Thomson, the barrister and solicitor, who was in the court.

His honor considered it very peculiar that a man with five dollars in his pocket and with five hours on shore could not find a doctor in St. John. He had not previously been aware that physicians were so scarce. Reed said he was willing to be examined by a physician and if his condition did not justify the claim he made that he was ill to abide by the consequences. Officer Ralston and Reed then departed for the hospital.

In case it is proved that he has been misrepresenting his case he is liable to eight weeks imprisonment and the loss of the pay coming to him, some twenty-five dollars.

Robert Engene was found asleep in a car in the C. P. R. yard. He told he was a deserter from a French warship and was anxious to get to Maine. He was allowed to go but if he is found within the city in a limited time he will be liable to a long term with the jail.

Little Harned, aged 34, was arrested yesterday afternoon, charged with keeping a bawdy house. Catherine Doherty, aged 41, and John Carlsson, aged 44, were also taken up, being charged with being inmates of the house.

Scott was the only witness examined. He described what he saw when he entered the house.

The case was adjourned.

CONNELL vs C. P. R.

Dispute Which Has Been Causing Excitement in Woodstock Aired Before Judge Tuck.

Before Chief Justice Tuck in the supreme court chambers this morning the case of the C. P. R. vs. H. A. Connell, which has caused something like a sensation in Woodstock a few weeks ago, came up with respect to an interim injunction which was granted to the C. P. R. to prevent the defendant from operating his mill while the C. P. R. was making certain repairs and alterations to its railway. Mr. Connell sought this morning to have the injunction dissolved, setting out his case on affidavits. The C. P. R. asked for further time to answer some of the affidavits which the chief justice granted.

H. H. McLean and F. R. Taylor appeared for the C. P. R., and J. C. Hartley and L. A. Carey, K. C., for Mr. Connell.

At the same time the chief justice appointed arbitrators in the arbitration case between the same parties. This case is for the recovery of damages sustained by Mr. Connell in consequence of the appropriation by the C. P. R. by virtue of an order of the chief justice, of land owned by Mr. Connell.

The arbitrators appointed were Jos. R. Stone, St. John; Wm. S. Saunders, Fredericton and W. Z. Earle, St. John. The same lawyers appeared.

MRS. A. G. BLAIR IS ILL.

(Special to Star.)
MONTREAL, Oct. 23.—Hon. A. G. Blair has been confined to his house at the bedside of Mrs. Blair, who for some time has been ill necessitating general medical consultation. Mr. Blair's well known devotion to his wife has precluded the possibility of his even discussing public affairs or giving any thought or attention at all to them for over a week, except attendance for a short time at the sittings of the railway commission. The many friends of the hon. gentleman will be pleased to hear today that Mrs. Blair is much better.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brown returned from the Upper Canadian provinces this morning.

ABOUT THREE LIBERALS.

What Liberal Papers Accuse Star of Misrepresenting Three Men's Views—The Truth of It

The "Liberal News" this morning in prominent type printed a statement containing the following: "The names of three Liberals who have been misrepresenting the views of the Liberal party in the city are: James Pender and R. C. Elkin. They have been misrepresenting the views of the Liberal party in the city by their party, and will help it to victory."

The object of the "Liberal News" evidently is to create the impression that the opposition press in interviews recently published put into the mouths of these men words they did not say.

The name of R. C. Elkin was never numbered as one of these Liberals who found it impossible to support the government any longer.

James Pender said this morning that he told no reporter how he was going to vote. That was an affair of his own. His interview in the Sun and Star a few days ago was substantially correct. He said then that he opposed the government's Grand Trunk Pacific scheme—one of his reasons being that it would rob St. John of trade in favour of Portland, Me. He is still of the same mind, he says. He approved, however, of the government "dumping clause" in the tariff.

Charles K. Cameron when interviewed by a Sun reporter a few days ago said he was not opposed to the government's railway policy, as every sensible man was. The railway should be built from ocean to ocean and be owned by the people and handed over to no company. This morning Mr. Cameron said that his views had since undergone a change.

TO-DAY'S FUNERALS.

The funeral took place this morning at 8.30 o'clock of the late Patrick Griffin to the church of St. John the Baptist, where high mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Chapman. Interment was in the new Catholic cemetery. The pall bearers were Matthew McOgilgan, John Abbott, P. O. McGulgan, William Kirk, Capt. Hasley and John Condon.

The funeral of the late Mrs. A. C. O. Tennyson took place at 3 o'clock this afternoon from her late residence to St. James's church. Interment was in Fernhill.
