St. John City Rifle Club will shoot the first league match this afternoon on the local rifle range starting at 1.30 sharp. A lively row among the faithful is reported in consequence of the large number of "deserving applicants." The opportunity of Mr. Pugsley will be no doubt be seized upon in an effort to settle the claims of the various candidates.

A Letter of Inquiry.
A letter to the postmaster from Michael Muller, 18 S. Jackson Ave., Atlantic City, N. J., seeks information as to the whereabouts of John Butler. He left Glasgow, Scotland, in 1855, and, according to the writer, was last heard from in this city. If alive he would be about 74 years of age, and a sister is anxious to hear of him. The postmaster will be glad of any information about Mr. Butler.

Excavators To Organize.
A meeting was held last evening at which arrangements were made for the organization of a union of laborers employed in excavation work. It is proposed to take in all laborers engaged in excavation work for the city either on the day labor system or working for contractors. When the "red carriers" union was formed it took in the building laborers, but it is understood the laborers are dissatisfied with the fact that the red carriers are getting $2.50 a day, while they are only getting $1.75 and are determined to have a union of their own.

A movement is on foot to form an International Branch of Longshoremen in St. John. To this end W. Allingham, president of the Trades and Labor Council, addressed the Ship Laborers in their hall in Water street. He pointed out the advantages of having all the unions affiliated with the Trades and Labor Council, and also the advantages of having one Longshoremen's Union in the city instead of several. A long list of names has been given in ready to form the International branch. A nominal fee will be charged. It is open to all longshoremen in the city. After a short time the initiation will be $5. All interested for a solid labor movement should give in their names without delay.

AN OLD STORY, BUT TOLD IN NEW WAY
What a St. John Man is Alleged to have Said to a Boastful Halifax Visitor in a City Hotel.

A Halifax man he was, and he had a self-important aspect. Also he was a boastful habit of speech, and bent on singing the praise of "Dear dingy Halifax."

"St. John is not in the same class as Halifax, though you seem to think you are," he snorted loudly to a well known citizen who had dropped into the hotel lobby last evening. "I've been all around your city today, and I don't think much of it."

"What is the matter with it?" mildly asked the St. John man.
"Well, for one thing," said the Halifax man, "it is not as well laid out as Halifax."

"But no doubt it would have been well laid out if it had been dead as long as Halifax," retorted the St. John man, and the subject dropped.

THE COURTS.

In the county court yesterday afternoon, before Judge Forbes, argument of counsel was presented in the case of the King vs. Ernest Howes, who was convicted in December last of violating the liquor license law by having two entrances to his bar. It appears that the Park Hotel owned by Mr. Howes has a large window in the end of the bar and Magistrate Ritchie held this was an entrance within the meaning of the act. Mr. Howes was fined $20. Counsel yesterday afternoon submitted the evidence taken in the police court. J. A. Barry acting for Mr. Howes, contended that the window was not an entrance and that the magistrate's decision was bad.

J. A. Siminoff, for the liquor commission, argued contra.
The non-jury case of the Canadian Fairbanks Co., Ltd., vs. William B. Day, was further postponed from yesterday afternoon until Friday next at 11 a. m. owing to the non arrival of a witness for the defendant. The defendant purchased a small engine from the plaintiff and sometime after exchanged it for a larger one. He did not make the payments required on the sale and the engine was seized by the plaintiff and sold. This is an action to recover the loss on the resale amounting to $150 and also an action for goods sold and delivered, amounting to an additional $27.75.
J. D. P. Lewis and John B. M. Baxter, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff and George H. V. Belyea for the defendant.

James Powers and Charles Toner who recently pleaded guilty to charges of theft will be sentenced on Monday afternoon at half past two, at the court house.

Excitement on Erin Street, Last Evening, when James O'Leary was Severely Beaten by Englishman.

There was considerable excitement on Erin street last night about nine o'clock when James O'Leary was given a severe beating by an Englishman named Chappey. The police arrived in time to take charge of Chappey for assault and Dr. D. E. Berryman looked after O'Leary who was quite badly injured. The case may probably be given a hearing in the police court this morning.
