OBITUARY.

Mrs. Elizabeth Purcell, Newcastle, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Elizabeth Purcell of Chatham, widow of the late Richard Purcell, died here yesterday at the home of her brother and sister, Andrew and Mrs. James McRobbie, aged 83 years. She will be buried today at the R. C. cemetery. Deceased was a much respected lady.

James Fraser,
St. George, Oct. 31.—After a lingering illness of a year and a half from consumption, Mr. James Fraser passed away on Wednesday, Oct. 30, at the age of 54 years. The deceased was a stone cutter by trade and worked at it until a few years ago when he gave it up and engaged in the trucking business. He was a member of both independent and Canadian Orders of Foresters. The only surviving relative is a half brother, Harry Fraser, his parents and other relatives having predeceased him many years ago. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon. The services will be conducted by Rev. James Spencer.

Emile Polier, Shediac, Oct. 31.—The death took place on Tuesday in Shediac, of Emile Polier, son of the late Fidelis Polier and Mrs. Polier, of Shediac. The deceased was sick only a very short time, and his mother was with him during his illness, having gone from Shediac to be at her son's bedside.
The late Mr. Polier added another to the list of Shediac people who have passed away from the deadly influenza.
For some years he had been a resident of Shediac, where he had a large circle of friends, and where he held a good position as the efficient manager of the general store of Z. Lager & Co.
The remains were brought to Shediac for interment, the funeral taking place at St. Joseph's cemetery at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning. Beautiful floral tributes covered the casket. Rev. Fr.
LeBlanc of Shediac and Rev. Fr. Albert Polier, brother of the deceased, official at the burial. The pallbearers were, Senator Polier, Dr. James E. White, P. J. Robitoux, J. McDevitt, passing away is mourned with regret by the many who knew him, in his home town, and he was held in the highest esteem by all. Our citizens extend deep sympathy to the mother of the deceased and to the surviving brother, Rev. Father Polier of St. Mary's, Rent Co. Senator Polier and

J. J. Walker, who was a resident of a few days since Mr. Walker was seen on our streets, in his usual good health and spirits, and his sudden passing away came as a shock to the community. The late Mr. Walker had spent a part of each year in Shediac at the Cape and at Point du Chene for some years, and his circle of friends was a large one by whom he was most highly respected and who will miss his courteous manner and kindly greeting. Among his survivors include his children, Mrs. Myer, of Montreal, and Miss St. Pierre, of Montreal, and his sister, Mrs. J.
Walker of Montreal, have spent considerable time in this town and vicinity. Father Walker of St. John is a son. To them
