The England of To-morrow.

cept Mr, Jenkins's statements as sober fuct, refuse to accept his fervid hopes for the future, and regard the civiliza-tion of England as already doomed to be swept away by a volcanic rising of her degraded and depressed lower clas-ses. We accept Mn. Jenkins's asser-tions as strictly true. He dwelt, of course, chiefly on one side of the pic-turc, as it, was his business to do. He dwelt chiefly on the abuses that are to dwelt chiefly on the abuses that are to shows his localty by working in the cause of the unity of the Empire. If the navy, the bench and bar; railways, schools, one and all have their vested in-terests. You cannot legislate in any di-rection without driving against these obstructive interests. Hence reform in England and in this new country, how-ever alike in principle, is in practice a far different thing. Here society yields more schwand tobbying members Trade for approval of his able than holding hole and corner meet-lags mound the city and lobbying members of the Board of Trade for approval of his schemes. The muddle which the Minister had thus got himself into became apparent as soon as the Board of Trade began to cor-sider his request. Mr. Smith wanted a delegate sent to Ottawa to help hin through with his Canadian Lloyds. He had given it out that it was sure to go into effect because it was part of the fib-wrimment's policy. But now the men-who ought to know and do know the Go-wrimment's policy boldy denied it was anything of the kind. Mr. John Burpee, brother of the distin-guished Minister of Customs, very frank-ty declared that Isaae was ugainst the scheme and didn't hesitate further to state that he was well informed a majori-The Mambrino Chief, since his arrival When you are depressed by the game, sickly feeling of a disordered system, which needs to be cleansed and stimulat-ed into healthy action, take a dose or two of AYER'S PILLS and see how quick you can be restored for a shilling.
